Today's Reading

First Reading — Filled with the Holy Spirit, the apostles begin to speak in tongues (Acts 2:1-11).

Psalm — Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth (Psalm 104).

Second Reading — In one Spirit we are baptized into one body
(1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13) or Romans 8:8-17.

Gospel — Jesus Christ appears to the disciples and sends them on their mission (John 20:19-23)or John 14:15-16, 23b-26.

In the first reading we learn of the experience of Pentecost for Jesus' disciples, when the Holy Spirit, in the forms of wind and fire, appears to them and empowers them for the work of evangelization, The power of the Holy Spirit allows them to understood by all people in their own language. This is a profound gift, for certainly Jesus could not expect his disciples to be successful in preaching of "the mighty acts of God," to every corner of the earth if they only had their own native language. The power of the Holy Spirit transcends all barriers, allowing the message to resonate in the hearts and minds of all who hear it. How often does a perceived barrier hold us back in our communication of the good news? If we can trust in the power of the Holy Spirit to guide us, we may be more easily able to overcome, or better yet, remove anything that we feel may be in the way of sharing the redemptive love of God with all our brothers and sisters.
The "strong driving wind" that fills the disciples' house is reminiscent of the beginning of creation, when a mighty wind swept over the waters on the earth. The God of creation continues to create. He created each one of us, and loves each on of us. In the Psalm we ask God to "send out your spirit and renew the face of the earth". Through the gift of the sacraments, we have the opportunity to encounter and be filled with the spirit of God. How is the spirit at work within you? How can you use the working of the spirit in you to share the good news of the Gospel and renew the face of the earth?

PRAYER LINE

The Carmel Mission Prayer Line is confidential. Members of our faith community offer prayer daily for your special needs. Leave your message on the prayer line at (831) 624-1271, menu option 5, if you want prayer for a special intention. Only the first name is needed with a short description of the intention need. Your prayer request remains on our list for three months (updates are appreciated).

Note: names are not placed in the bulletin "Pray For" list without that individual's permission.

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Keep in prayer our brave parishioners, relatives and friends of our parish family who are in service to their country in the Armed Forces abroad: Richard Brophy and Robert Maher

We ask the Lord to keep them safe from harm and pray for their families while they are far from home.

LITURGY VAULT

"The liturgy is celebrated for God and not for ourselves;
it is His work; He is the subject;
and we must open ourselves to Him"

(Pope Benedict XVI, 3 October 2012).

The Order of Mass: The Liturgy of the Word – Part 2

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "[t]he liturgy of the Word is an integral part of sacramental celebrations. To nourish the faith of believers, the signs which accompany the Word of God should be emphasized: the book of the Word (a lectionary or a book of the Gospels), its veneration (procession, incense, candles), the place of its proclamation (lectern or ambo), its audible and intelligible reading, the minister's homily which extends its proclamation, and the responses of the assembly (acclamations, meditation psalms, litanies, and profession of faith)" (n. 1154).

"The main part of the Liturgy of the Word is made up of the readings from Sacred Scripture together with the chants occurring between them. The homily, Profession of Faith, and Prayer of the Faithful, however, develop and conclude this part of the Mass. For in the readings, as explained by the homily, God speaks to his people, opening up to them the mystery of redemption and salvation, and offering them spiritual nourishment; and Christ himself is present in the midst of the faithful through his word. By their silence and singing the people make God's word their own, and they also affirm their adherence to it by means of the Profession of Faith. Finally, having been nourished by it, they pour out their petitions in the Prayer of the Faithful for the needs of the entire Church and for the salvation of the whole world" (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, n. 55).

"The Liturgy of the Word is to be celebrated in such a way as to promote meditation, and so any sort of haste that hinders recollection must clearly be avoided. During the Liturgy of the Word, it is also appropriate to include brief periods of silence, accommodated to the gathered assembly, in which, at the prompting of the Holy Spirit, the word of God may be grasped by the heart and a response through prayer may be prepared. It may be appropriate to observe such periods of silence, for example, before the Liturgy of the Word itself begins, after the first and second reading, and lastly at the conclusion of the homily" (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, n. 56).

"In the Liturgy of the Word, the congregation of Christ's faithful even today receives from God the word of his covenant through the faith that comes by hearing, and must respond to that word in faith, so that they may become more and more truly the people of the New Covenant. The people of God have a spiritual right to receive abundantly from the treasury of God's word. Its riches are presented to them through use of the Order of Readings, the homily, and pastoral efforts. For their part, the faithful at the celebration of Mass are to listen to the word of God with an inward and outward reverence that will bring them continuous growth in the spiritual life and draw them more deeply into the mystery which is celebrated" (General Introduction to the Lectionary, n. 45).

"As a help toward celebrating the memorial of the Lord with eager devotion, the faithful should be keenly aware of the one presence of Christ in both the word of God—it is he himself 'who speaks when the Sacred Scriptures are read in the Church'—and 'above all under the Eucharistic species' (Sacrosanctum Concilium, n. 7)" (General Introduction to the Lectionary, n. 46).

2019 AMA Campaign

Our pews are crafted from pine. The original contract for their construction was placed with Murphy Milling, Santa Clara, CA in 1939, by Harry Downie. Now, eighty years on, we are having these very same pews completely sanded down to the pine wood, repaired and restored. They will enhance our Basilica for many years to come.

In donating to our Renew a Pew Campaign, you are playing your part in helping to ensure that all who come to our Basilica in future years to worship our loving God, will have comfortable seating and kneeling available to them.

Once again, I extend my great gratitude to all who have contributed so generously towards helping us meet our final goal of $150,000.

In the great love of Our Risen Lord,

DOCENT CORNER AND STEWARDSHIP

Gaspar de Portolá

In early June of 1770, Don Gaspar de Portolá helped found the Presidio of Monterey and Mission San Carlos Borroméo de Monterey. With his task finished, he left a Lieutenant in charge and sailed away never to return to California.

Portolá was a Spanish soldier, Governor of the Californias (Baja and Alta), explorer and the founder of San Diego and Monterey. He was born in Catalonia of a Spanish noble family and served as a soldier in the Spanish army. Portolá was charged with the expulsion of all Jesuits from the 15 missions of Baja California as decreed by King Charles III in 1767.

In 1769, Spain decided to establish military outposts and missions in Alta California out of fear that the territory would be claimed by either the English or the Russians. Portolá volunteered to command the expedition. Four separate detachments were to meet at the site of San Diego Bay. The land expedition led by Portolá arrived in June and joined up with the other groups. After their arduous journeys, little more than 100 had survived out of a total of the 219 men who left Baja.

Eager to press on to Monterey, Portolá and his expedition headed north by land in July. They could not find the harbor of Monterey and after exploring the region of San Francisco, returned to San Diego in January, 1770. After replenishing supplies at San Diego, they decided on a joint expedition to again search for Monterey and establish a colony. The ship San Antonio sailed with Fr. Serra and his party. The next day, Portola's land expedition again marched north. The land expedition arrived in Monterey on May 24 and the ship a week later.

A Mass was conducted at the same oak tree that the Vizcaíno expedition had worshiped under in 1602 and possession of Monterey was officially taken. Six years after he left Monterey, Portolá was appointed the Governor of Puebla. After the appointment of a new Governor eight years later, he was advanced money for expenses and returned to Spain, after which nothing more is known about him.

CARMEL MISSION
BASILICA

Dear Friends of Carmel Mission,

On this Pentecost Sunday, we celebrate the birthday of our Church. So, I wish all of you a very Happy Birthday!

Our Church was born on that first Pentecost in Jerusalem. The disciples of Jesus had locked themselves into an upper room, fearing that a similar fate awaited them as that which their Lord and Teacher had undergone.

Jesus appeared to them, even though the doors were locked. He tried His best to assuage their fears, but was unsuccessful in so doing.

It was only when the Holy Spirit descended on them that their fears vanished totally! They could not wait to go outside into the city streets to proclaim the fact that Jesus had Risen from the dead. Furthermore, they announced that any person who believes in Jesus, would also experience Resurrection. What wonderful Good News to proclaim!

On this Pentecost Sunday, 2019, we have yet another reason to rejoice. Some twenty of our young people here at Carmel Mission will be Confirmed in the Holy Spirit by our Bishop, +Daniel Garcia. We are honored by the presence of our Bishop and neighbor.

Our young people are not putting themselves forward to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation lightly. They have thought about it, prayed about it, - perhaps some have even initially argued against it! But today, without fear or foreboding, they have decided to come downstairs and publicly declare their personal faith in the fact that Jesus is the Son of God, and that they, like the early disciples, accept their Baptism, and the call that they have received from God to make the world a better place by their presence.

As we join Bishop Garcia and our young people on this special Pentecost Day, I suggest that we pray for a new outpouring of the Holy Spirit on our young people, on ourselves, on our Church and on our world.

Happy Pentecost!

Fr. Paul
