"I will place my law within them and write it upon their hearts;
I will be their God, and they shall be my people." — Jeremiah 31:33

Many of our scripture readings in the season of Lent have focused on the covenant between God and God's people. In today's readings, we hear of the new covenant, promised and prophesized in the Book of Jeremiah, and accomplished by Jesus through his saving Passion, death on the cross, and resurrection.

In Jeremiah we hear that the new covenant will be "written in their hearts." All people will know God, and God will embrace all people as God's people. In the Gospel as Jesus is preparing his disciples for his coming death, he admits to being troubled, but knows "it was for this purpose that I came to this hour." Jesus' sense of purpose is supported by the Lords voice from heaven, " I have glorified it and will glorify it again." Jesus is unwavering in the face of what he must endure, knowing all, he accepts and embraces his Passion.

The rainbow is our reminder of the covenant between God and God's people.

We do not know all that we will have to endure or what we will have to face in life, and we often do not have Jesus' unfailing sense of purpose but we do have the promise of God's love and support given in the new covenant. An audible voice from Heaven does not always come to encourage us, but if we turn to our loving God in prayer and seek God's guidance this encouragement is available to us. God is there for us; God is there with us, in every moment of life. As we prepare to journey with Jesus through his Passion and death and ultimately to his triumphant Resurrection, let us turn more deeply to God to find the strength and encouragement that God shares with each of us.

Holy Week Explained: The Triduum

THE TRIDUUM includes three days Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday—which is actually one long, extended service that celebrates the last days of Jesus life and mission, his death, and his resurrection. The Triduum is the ultimate story of who we are as a people and as a church. It is our most important and central celebration of the entire year. Each part of the Triduum is a rich, deep experience of symbols and stories. These three celebrations are the central services offered and thus there are no other Masses offered during these three days. However, the community is encouraged to engage in prayer both individually and communally, and thus we are offering Morning Prayer all three days for those wishing to pray the psalms together and enter into the spirit of prayer and reflection of this most Holy Week.

ANNOUNCEMENTS — DOCENT CORNER

BLESS YOU! BLESS YOU!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Because of the current flu epidemic, we will temporarily cease to offer our neighbor a greeting at the beginning of mass and at the Sign of Peace. We will also temporarily cease to offer the chalice at Communion time.

As you are probably aware, the State of California has been badly affected by the flu virus, and the above mentioned measures have been taken to safeguard the health of our parishioners and visitors.

Please continue to pray for all our sick brothers and sisters.

I wish you blessings of good health and great happiness,

Fr. Paul, Pastor at Carmel Mission

Next Selection, Carmel Mission Book Club

The next selection for the Carmel Mission Book Club is Strangers in a Strange Land by Archbishop Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M.

Chaput offers a compelling reflection on the person of Jesus Christ, the nature of the Church, the urgency of radical faith, and the redemptive power of beauty – all in the spirit of Psalm 8 and the enduring words of Irenaeus: "The glory of God is man fully alive."

The Book Club meets Saturdays at 2pm at MacMahon Center, and begins this selection January 13th. Refreshments are provided.
All are welcome. Attendance and the book are free; a goodwill donation to cover the book and shipping is requested but not required.

Our Lady of Bethlehem… Lost and Found

This statue, which resides in the side chapel to the left of the nave, is an original artifact of the Carmel Mission and is the oldest shrine of Our Lady on the west coast of America. The title, Our Lady of Bethlehem, honors Our Lady at the birth of Christ.

The statue was originally situated on the front altar of the Mission but when the Mission was abandoned, the statue was cared for by an Indian family, the Cantua's. It was located in an adobe building in the Mission orchard where devotions were held in her honor for years by local Indians and residents. When the daughter of this family took up residence in Monterey in about 1872, the statue was enshrined in her home.

At her death in 1925, she passed the statue to a neighbor, Tulita Bennett Westfall, a local artist of some note and a descendant of one of the soldiers (Boronda) who had accompanied Fr. Serra. It stayed in her family for many years (including when she lived in Oakland) and was dismantled and stored in her basement when Harry Downie asked to see it. She did not want to show it to him for fear that he would want to take it.

But Harry was a very persistent man. He offered to repair it, but when he found out that it was the actual long missing La Conquistadora, it had to be returned to the Mission. In 1948, Tulita reluctantly gave it to Harry to be returned in the restored Mission church.

The statue was placed on the gospel side of the altar on Christmas Eve 1948. After the Reredos was completed in 1956, she was moved to the side altar and from there to the Bethlehem Chapel which was re-dedicated to her honor.

This insight into the Mission history was provided by the Carmel Mission Docent Association

Museum Note* Our Docent Ministry has kindly donated $30,000 to enable the Parish to commence the restoration of this priceless treasure. The restoration process has already begun! If you would like to donate to this historic project please contact Jewel Gentry our Mission Museum Manger

WE ARE ASKING EACH AND EVERY PARISHIONER TO CONTRIBUTE SOMETHING!

AMA Campaign Update

We continue to make strong progress compared to last year at this time in terms of both dollars and numbers of parishioners contributing to our AMA campaign.

If you haven't yet made your contribution to this one and only fund raiser for our parish, please do so right now either online at www.carmelmission.org or by using one the envelopes in the pews at mass.

"Once again, we thank you for your generosity and continued support." Our two reasonable objectives are: $100,000 and 100% participation!

Please consider making your commitment today – either online at www.carmelmission.org or by using one the envelopes in the pews at mass.

We hope each and every parishioner takes this opportunity to support our parish.

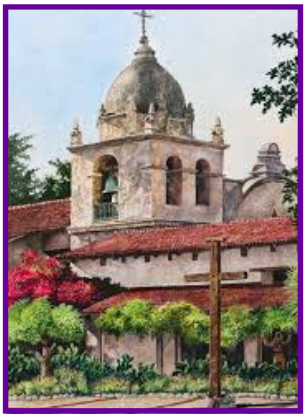
The Work Of Our Great Hall

"May the favor of the Lord our God be ours. Prosper the work of our hands! Prosper the work of our hands!" - Psalm 90:17

Our Parish Community Hall is named in honor of Father Juan Crespí, who led a life in service to our first Catholic communities here in Carmel and is remembered as an important missionary of early California history.

Since its construction, Crespí Hall like its name sake, has become an important part of Parish life. It is our gathering place for parishioners after mass to share a cup of coffee and pastry and catch up on the week's events. The old hall has served us all as the place of celebration and remembrance for generations of parishioner' weddings, funerals, baptisms, and feast days. Crespí Hall is the familiar venue for our various parish ministries, including our Altar Society, our Docents, the Knights of Columbus, our Bereavement Ministry and many others. There have been countless moments of service to our parish that have been the blessing of this great hall.

Our historic parish hall has benefited from parishioners that have lent their talents to the maintence and restoration, of Crespí Hall. With our ongoing AMA campaigns, renovations in Crespí Hall are now underway in the kitchen. Also, new office space has been added, replacing cluttered storage areas.
Given the restoration challenges of Crespi Hall, we needed to enlist someone who uniquely understood the history of the hall and how it serves our Parish. To our great fortune we found a willing partner in Jon Stuefloten, the owner of Restoration Painting.
…to be continued next week.



Thank You for your Stewardship!

Your continued generosity for the week ending 03/11/2018

The Junípero Serra Preschool

Located on the peaceful, historic grounds of the Carmel Mission, the Junipero Serra Preschool is fully certified by the State of California and provides a joyful learning experience for children ages 3 years, 9 months, through 5 years old.

Small Learning Environment

The small learning environment of the JSS preschool allows each student to thrive by receiving the time and attention of both a teacher and a teacher's aide. The JSS class size usually ranges from 8 to 16 students which provides an intimate setting conducive to optimal social and academic learning.

The Joy of Learning

As our youngest students prepare for reading readiness, the teachers make learning fun and exciting. The joy of learning is a daily occurrence that radiates within our students and reflects God's love in the smiles and enthusiasm shown by all children.

Art, Music, Physical Education, and Structured Creative Play

JSS preschool students receive instruction in art, music, and physical education. These learning opportunities provide for creative expression that enhances and enriches the child's love of education. Through art and music, students, as children of God, learn that their creativity is an expression of divine praise.

A Faith-Based Environment

JSS students learn that God is present and active in their lives and in the world. Catholic schools promote self-discipline through clarity of moral vision that is based on the Gospel. Students are challenged to be Christ-like in word and action.
