Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord March 25, 2018

(Christ Jesus) humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. — Philippians 2:8

The Entry of Christ into Jerusalem (1320) by Pietro Lorezetti, part of the Assisi Frescoes

Palm Sunday, also called Passion Sunday, joins the foretelling of Christ's regal triumph and the Passion narrative. At the beginning of the celebration we hear the story of Jesus' entry into Jerusalem, which is fraught with symbolism.
Jesus invokes the ancient kingly right of requisitioning transport and another kingly prerogative, to ride an animal that has never been ridden by anyone else. But Jesus chooses a donkey, a symbol that he comes as a king of peace, rather than on a warhorse.
The people lay down their cloaks and palm branches in his path, honoring him as a king and the Messiah with the word, "Hosanna." In its earliest form the word "hosanna" was one of supplication meaning " come to our aid." By Jesus' time the word had taken on a more jubilant and celebratory tone but kept some of the original meaning in its Messianic implications. The cries of "Hosanna" were both a joyful cry of praise to God and a hope that the Messiah had come. The joy of the people was to be short lived, as only a few days later Jesus is arrested and ultimately crucified.
We know how the story of Holy Week ends, in the glorious resurrection of our Savior, Jesus Christ. We are encouraged, however, to walk each step of this week with Jesus, from the triumphant entry into Jerusalem, to the Last Supper, to the time of Jesus' prayer in the garden of Gethsemane, to his arrest and interrogation by the high priest and by Pontius Pilate, and ultimately to his crucifixion and death. This begins today, and the Passion gospel helps us to prepare to make this journey with Jesus again and anew in our hearts, drawing us, with each step, into a closer relationship with our Savior.

Holy Week Explained: The Triduum cont.

HOLY THURSDAY the story of Jesus washing the feet of his disciples, we follow suit and wash each other's feet – a reminder that being a follower of Jesus requires us to serve and to be served and this may require vulnerability. Holy Thursday also features the story of the last supper with Jesus saying to his disciples, "This is my Body, this is my Blood…do this in memory of me." We do this in memory of him all year but in particular remember this last meal before his death on Holy Thursday. We then strip the church and move the remainder of the consecrated Body to an altar of repose and wait there with Jesus until his death. GOOD FRIDAY we enter into a stripped church that helps us to enter into the death of Jesus and experience it in our own lives. This is the one day of the year in which there are no Masses celebrated because a Mass celebrates Jesus resurrection and conquering death but at this point in our living out the story that has not happened yet. We retell the death of Jesus in a vivid and real way to remind ourselves of the sacrifice that Jesus experienced. THE EASTER VIGIL on Holy Saturday is the culmination of the three days of the Triduum. The service begins in darkness with a fire that we bless together as a community. From this fire we light the large Paschal Candle that is the Light of Christ that we hold together as a community throughout the rest of the year to continually remind us of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus that brought new life and light into our world. This candle is used for Baptisms, and funerals all year. The Vigil continues with the telling of all of the great stories of our faith history and our relationship with God, our salvation history. These stories connect the oldest and newest members that we then baptize and confirm into our faith and community. The Easter Vigil is a joyous celebration of new life and the resurrection that we will all eventually get to experience. We express our hope amidst the fears and challenges of this world because we have the light of Christ with us to light up the darkness.

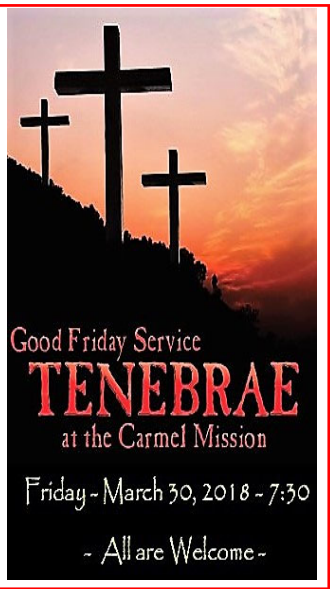
ANNOUNCEMENTS — DOCENT CORNER

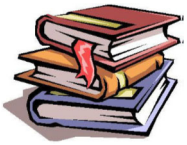
Tenebrae in Latin translates to shadow or darkness.
This tradition dates back to at least the ninth century.

This solemn service was observed over the last three days of Holy Week.

Today the Tenebrae service is a liturgical meditation and encounter of the hours and moments of the Passion leading to Christ's sacrifice.

Please join us.





Next Selection, Carmel Mission Book Club

The next selection for the Carmel Mission Book Club is Strangers in a Strange Land by Archbishop Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M.

Chaput offers a compelling reflection on the person of Jesus Christ, the nature of the Church, the urgency of radical faith, and the redemptive power of beauty – all in the spirit of Psalm 8 and the enduring words of Irenaeus: "The glory of God is man fully alive."

The Book Club meets Saturdays at 2pm at MacMahon Center, and begins this selection January 13th. Refreshments are provided.
All are welcome. Attendance and the book are free; a goodwill donation to cover the book and shipping is requested but not required.

BLESS YOU! BLESS YOU!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Because of the current flu epidemic, we will temporarily cease to offer our neighbor a greeting at the beginning of mass and at the Sign of Peace. We will also temporarily cease to offer the chalice at Communion time.

As you are probably aware, the State of California has been badly affected by the flu virus, and the above mentioned measures have been taken to safeguard the health of our parishioners and visitors.

Please continue to pray for all our sick brothers and sisters.

I wish you blessings of good health and great happiness,

Serra Viaticum Painting and Our Lady of Bethlehem

This statue Our Lady of Bethlehem in the chapel on the left hand side of the nave is an original artifact of the Carmel Mission and is California's first statue. It is the oldest shrine of Our Lady on the west coast of America (the oldest is in Santa Fe). The title Our Lady of Bethlehem honors Our Lady at the birth of Christ.

Shortly after Fr. Serra's death, Fr. Francisco Paloú, the new Father General of the Missions, wrote to the Franciscan College in Mexico City asking that Fr. Serra be memorialized in a painting commemorating his last Viaticum. He should be "kneeling and before the altar of Our Lady of Bethlehem with the Child in her arms," Fr. Paloú specified.

The College approved the idea, and the painting entitled Fr. Serra's Viaticum was made. A copy of the painting is on the right side of the church in the front. Fr. Paloú is shown in the center holding the Host and ciborium. Fr. Serra kneels to the right wearing a stole over his Franciscan habit. Around him are soldiers, sailors and Indians holding lighted candles. The green coated official is Alta California Governor Col. Pedro Fages. Above the altar is the statue of Our Lady of Bethlehem.

The original plan for the stone church was to have the statue on the front altar with the Star of Bethlehem represented by the uniquely shaped window in the front of the mission. Early records indicate that the statue was enshrined over the main altar. When the church was built by stonemason Manuel Ruiz in 1793, it was oriented on a 60 degree angle and, as we have discovered, the sun shines very brightly on the altar through this window on the morning of the Summer Solstice in June. Early photographs of the restored church show the statue in the front of the church looking to the rear of the church nave and at the Star of Bethlehem window.

This insight into the Mission history was provided by the Carmel Mission Docent Association

Museum Note* Our Docent Ministry has kindly donated $30,000 to enable the Parish to commence the restoration of this priceless treasure. The restoration process has already begun! If you would like to donate to this historic project please contact Jewel Gentry our Mission Museum Manger

The Work of Our Great Hall

"May the favor of the Lord our God be ours. Prosper the work of our hands! Prosper the work of our hands!" - Psalm 90:17

Our historic parish hall has benefited from parishioners that have lent their talents to the maintence and restoration, of Crespí Hall. With our ongoing AMA campaigns, renovations in Crespí Hall are now underway in the kitchen. Also, new office space has been added, replacing cluttered storage areas. Given the restoration challenges of Crespi Hall, we needed to enlist someone who uniquely understood the history of the hall and how it serves our Parish. To our great fortune we found a willing partner in Jon Stuefloten, the owner of Restoration Painting.

Jon may be familiar to many of you as he was baptized at the Mission and has been a long-time parishioner and member of the Knights of Columbus. Jon is a Master Chef and has served countless meals at various events for our parish as a volunteer, or the Knights.

As a young man learning his trade, Jon apprenticed with Lyle Ingram of Carmel, who instructed him on the details of decorative finishing. Jon is also a certified Master Painter with an impressive listing of projects that includes the historic sites of the Point Sur and Point Pinos light houses.

In anticipation of the 2015 Canonization of Saint Junípero Serra, John refreshed and refinished our parish altars and the grave marker of our Saint. Jon also painted the interior of Crespí Hall with his team and a few regional artists. For this project Jon utilized ancient lime-wash painting techniques which creates unique texture and quality. This breathable paint changes in tone whit shifts of temperature exacting and presents a classic look that dates to antiquity. If you look closely at various elements in Crespi Hall, you may note the seamless faux finishing of wood grain created by Jon. All of the framing elements of Crespí Hall, the doors, benches, loft and book shelves are finished in "his old technique" an effect created with tinted wax and specialized tools.
