FR. PAUL'S MESSAGE

Dear Friend of Carmel Mission,

Today we celebrate the great feast of Pentecost, one of the most inspiring stories of our faith. It is inspiring not only because of the remarkable transformation of the apostles, but also because God demonstrates, yet again, that God is willing to bridge any distance between His believers and Himself. At a moment when the disciples are frightened, going so far as to hide in a secret location, God bursts into the space "like a strong driving wind." (Acts 2:2) Even in hiding, even in despair, the apostles are not beyond the reach of God's protective, empowering, loving care. They are suddenly free from fear and doubt, and they rush out, on fire to share with the world the source of their new freedom, God's love.

Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, said in his Pentecost homily several years ago, "It is important to believe that God is gift, that He acts not by taking away but by giving. Why is this important? Because our way of being believers depends on how we understand God. If we have in mind a God who takes away, who imposes Himself, we too will want to take away and impose ourselves. But if we have in our hearts a God who is a gift, everything changes. By loving humbly, serving freely and joyfully, we will offer to the world the true image of God. The Spirit, the living memory of the Church, reminds us that we are born from a gift, and that we grow by giving; not by holding on but by giving of ourselves." (May 31, 2020)

As we come to the end of this Easter season, we have borne witness again to the unimaginable love and generosity of God, to His relentless optimism and belief in humankind. Our Holy Father reminds us that how we perceive God matters. This Easter season I have been sharing my belief that God's gift of HOPE, Holy Optimism Pervading Everything, is a way that we can understand God that helps us to be an antidote to the dis-ease we see and experience in our world. May we take this HOPE out in to the streets as did the first apostles, on fire with the Spirit of truth, compassion, and love.

I wish you and your loved ones Pentecost blessings of good health, divine inspiration, and great HOPE,

Fr. Paul

Scripture Reflection

We hear the traditional Pentecost narrative, - the rushing wind, the tongues of flame, the inspiration of the previously fearful disciples to preach the Good News, and their sudden ability to communicate across previous language barriers – not in the Gospel, but rather in the Acts of the Apostles, the first reading. Pentecost is removed enough from the life of Jesus that it does not appear in the Gospel. The Gospel narrates a smaller, contained, passing of the Holy Spirit. Jesus appears behind locked doors, only to those who knew Him intimately. He offers them something of a commission, but the story ends the way it started, in a small room, in a contained community, behind locked doors. The Pentecost story in Acts begins in a similar way, but ends with a massively inclusive image; the disciples preaching not only to those who share their language and culture but to those outside these bounds. The Pentecost story reflects what the church will do, indeed what the church must do, now that Jesus' bodily presence is no longer on earth. It must run out and preaching, unable to contain its enthusiasm at the Good News of Jesus. We hear in Acts about God sending out His Spirit, and in the psalm we ask Him to do so again. The Spirit's coming is not a one-time thing. The work of renewing and recreating the earth is never done in our lifetimes. We wait for Jesus to return and bring it to its fullness. The second reading reminds us of the importance of recognizing our diverse gifts while celebrating our unity in God. St. Paul tells us that it is the Holy Spirit that brings this unity – while we are all different, we are united by the same Spirit.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,

come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Please pray for our Military

Keep in your prayer our brave parishioners, relatives and friends of our parish family who are in service to their country in the Armed Forces abroad:

Richard Brophy,
Robert Maher

We ask the Lord to keep them safe from harm and pray for their families while they are far from home.

Prayer Requests and Special Intentions

Our prayer request email is a great way to let us know about your prayer requests, or any special intentions you may have. Also, if you know of anyone in our parish family who is ill we ask that you share that with us so we may pray for them, and reach out to them or their family.

Carmel Mission Legacy Society

Click the thumbnail to the right to watch a short video about the Carmel Mission Legacy Society by Fr. Paul.

What is Legacy Society?

We owe an untold debt of gratitude to countless individuals — over many decades — whose benevolence made today's Mission a reality. Their generosity not only restored the Mission's structures to their former glory but also helped restore a house of faith, education, and outreach that is deeply rooted in our community.

This legacy of giving is the inspiration behind the Carmel Mission Legacy Society. Its purpose is to acknowledge past gifts and honor those who include Carmel Mission in their estate planning.

Legacy gifts provide a unique opportunity to ensure perpetual care for Carmel Mission. Your gift will help this historic and sacred church serve as a house of worship, an educational resource, and support for the most vulnerable in our community, for generations to come.

Ways You Can Give

Through planned giving, there are many ways to make a gift to Carmel Mission without impacting your own financial future. When you include Carmel Mission in your will or living trust or as a beneficiary of your retirement plan or life-insurance policy, you can plan, with confidence, that your generosity will support the Mission after your lifetime.

A legacy gift does not alter your current lifestyle in any way and allows you to leave a legacy without giving up your assets. It is important to note that the bequest is revocable, allowing you to change your mind at any time should your circumstances change.

MISSION DOORS RESTORATION PROJECT

We have undertaken the much needed restoration of many of the beautiful wooden doors at Carmel Mission.

The doors of the Carmel Mission are based on designs seen throughout the California Mission Chain and designs replicated throughout the Southwest, Mexico, and Spain. We do have some information that is helpful..

For example the Mission's main entrance doors we are fairly certain are based on Sir Harry Downie's affinity of the doors at Mission Dolores.

MISSION DOORS RESTORATION PROJECT

The much heralded and appreciate “River of Life” door design has been given much attention as it is a prominent feature at many of our Historic Missions. From a traditional understandings that has grown over time the River of Life motif is a direct reference to Revelation 22:

1 And he showed me a river of water of life, bright as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb, 2 in the midst of the street thereof. And on this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve manner of fruits, yielding its fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

From and other perspective the three wavy lines have been linked to the trinity. The design of three is a common motif in Church architecture.

As you will see in the before and after photographs, the restoration has brought new life to many of the doors.

MISSION DOORS RESTORATION PROJECT

This project has also given us an opportunity to observe the diversity of architectural styles and incredible workmanship that went into creating the doors.

In a recent conversation pertaining to the unique design with noted Spanish Colonial architecture expert Gloria Giffords shared that all of these perspectives are “dandy ideas”. She shared we really don’t know where these interpretations come from because we don’t have any documentation from when this design was first introduced. In a world that offers so many answers and information it is good that our Mission Church still has a few more mysteries to share. It is even better that we continue to preserve and protect these unique architectural features for future generations to ponder and explore.

I-HELP Needs your Help

Once a month Carmel Mission takes a turn at hosting the Interfaith Homeless Emergency Lodging Program. There are two separate programs, one for the men, held on the 4th Wednesday of the month, and one for the women, on the 2nd Monday of the month. This outreach to a vulnerable population has been a long-established program in our area with various churches taking a monthly turn at hosting.

What can you do? You can contribute to the meals we serve: dinner, breakfast, and a bagged lunch. You can join the fellowship of eating dinner with the program participants, or you can provide a part of the meal and drop it off prepared at Crespi Hall. We need and welcome volunteers like YOU!

Please consider this ecumenical opportunity and contact Dave and Wendy Banks at (831) 624-0317. Or contact Fr.Paul@carmelmission.org.
