Today’s Reading

First Reading You have brought them abundant joy and great rejoicing... (Is 8:23—9:3)

Psalm The Lord is my light and my salvation. (Ps 27:1, 4, 13-14)

Second Reading For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel... (1 Cor 1:10-13, 17)

Gospel “Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.” (Mt 4:12-23)

In the first reading, the psalm and the Gospel today, we hear of the light that shines in the darkness and we know this light to be Jesus Christ. Simon, Peter, Andrew, James and John recognize this when they immediately abandon all they have known to follow Jesus. Isaiah tells us, “the people that walk in darkness have seen a great light.” We can all imagine walking in the dark, unaware of obstacles ahead, fearing with each step we may fall down. When the light shines it does not necessarily remove the obstacles, but when we see them, we can overcome them, go around them, our steps are secure. This is the promise of salvation. The light will shine in the darkest moments of our lives, giving us strength, courage and comfort. When the disciples followed Jesus, they could not have imagined the challenges ahead, that they would continue his ministry and build his church after witnessing his death and resurrection. We know that they will experience a period of paralysis, hiding in the darkened room, fearing that the darkness has overcome his light, that they cannot take a step without fear of falling. Their overwhelming yes to the call to follow Jesus does not spare them this. But the wisdom of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, will shine on them and empower them for the work of ministry. To be a disciple of Jesus does not mean that we will not doubt, and fear, and struggle in our lives.. It means that the light will always be shining for us, dimly at some times, brightly at others. When the light is shining brightly for us is when we are called to share that light with others, when it is a mere flicker we can turn to our fellow disciples and ask them to share their light. “The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom should I fear?” What do you fear? How can you shine the light of salvation of this fear and turn it over to God?

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Keep in prayer our brave parishioners, relatives and friends of our parish family who are in service to their country in the Armed Forces abroad: Richard Brophy and Robert Maher

We ask the Lord to keep them safe from harm and pray for their families while they are far from home.

The Preparation of the Gifts: The Invitation to Pray

“Upon returning to the middle of the altar” after washing his hands, the celebrant, “facing the people and extending and then joining his hands, invites the people to pray, saying “Orate, fratres... Pray, brethren (brothers and sisters), that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father” (Order of Mass, n. 29).

With these words, the celebrant “summons all the faithful to unite with him in common prayer, in order that their common Sacrifice may be so much the more favorably received by God” (Rev. Dr. Nicholas Gihr, The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass (1902), p. 547).

In Masses celebrated in the English language, the Church gives the celebrant the option of addressing the congregation as either “brethren” (the literal translation of the Latin fratres) or “brothers and sisters”.

“The priest here addresses all the faithful as ‘brethren’, without distinction of state or sex. By their regeneration in baptism all Christians are children of God and of the Church; they form one great, grand and holy family of God and they are all brethren among each other…” (Rev. Dr. Nicholas Gihr, The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass (1902), pp. 547-548).

The people then rise and make their response: “May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church” (Order of Mass, n. 29).

“Although the faithful unite in offering the Holy Sacrifice, still they make mention here only of the act of the celebrant, inasmuch as they pray, that the Lord would favorably receive this Sacrifice ‘from his hands’. This is proper, for it indicates that the priest, as the servant and organ of Christ, alone performs the sacrificial act itself; for only his hands are anointed and consecrated to offer sacrifice. Only from priestly hands, which exhale the mystical perfume of the chalice and Host, does the Sacrifice ascend agreeably before the face of God” (Rev. Dr. Nicholas Gihr, The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass (1902), pp. 548-549).

“This prayer expresses the object and purpose of the Sacrifice of the Mass. On the one hand, the Sacrifice is offered for the honor and praise of God, to adore and glorify His infinite majesty; on the other, it is offered to be for us and the whole Church an inexhaustible source of all goods and gifts” (Rev. Dr. Nicholas Gihr, The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass (1902), p. 549).

Michael Reid is an Episcopal priest, author, co-founder and organizer of the Fund for Homeless Women of the Community Foundation for Monterey County. He served 20 years as a nonprofit leader before going on to seminary, then six years of parish ministry at St. Mary’s by the Sea Episcopal Church in Pacific Grove. Junipero Serra School is happy to celebrate National Catholic Schools Week with the Carmel Mission Parish! Each year, Catholic Schools Week has a theme. The theme for this year’s Catholic Schools Week is Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed.

For over 70 years, Carmel Mission’s School has been living this theme. At Junipero Serra School, our students Learn and Serve, then they Lead and Succeed! Perhaps you are a JSS graduate and can reflect on your journey of learning and serving, and now leading and succeeding.

Why Catholics Schools? Catholic Schools have many benefits including:

- The integration of faith with academic subjects, culture, and everyday life
- The emphasis of living out the faith as missionary disciples
- Catholic virtues and values and Catholic Social Teaching, which contribute to productive citizenship and responsible leadership
- An environment that encourages and nurtures prayer and is safe, welcoming, and supportive for children
- A favorable student to teacher ratio
- High graduation and college attendance rates
- Teacher commitment
- Strengthening and sustaining Catholicism in the United States, as students who attend Catholic School are far more likely to maintain their Faith and Practice in adulthood.

Carmel Mission Parishioners have been very generous in supporting Junipero Serra School over the years. In recognition and support of JSS and Catholic Education, and National Catholic Schools Week, you can donate today in two ways:

- A gift for the JSS Opportunity Fund. The Opportunity Fund supports families who seek a solid Catholic Education but need a little extra help to make the full cost of tuition. Please write your check to JSS Opportunity Fund.
- A gift to the Arts Program at Junipero Serra School. As a Catholic School we recognize the transcendent nature of our existence and know that the Arts speak to and through our Souls. At JSS we offer an enriching Arts program including Visual Art, Performing Art, Choir, Orchestra, and now a new gardening and cooking class. Please write your check to JSS Arts Program.
- People who make a gift of over $100 during Catholic Schools Week will receive a handmade thank you card from JSS students and an attractive JSS car magnet for your automobile.

Thank you for your continued support of Carmel’s Catholic School!

Steve Henderson
Principal
St. Rose of Lima

There is a painting in the left side of the nave of St. Rose of Lima. She was born at Lima, Peru in April of 1586. Her real name was Isabel Flores de Oliva. Her father, Gaspar Flores, was a soldier and her mother, Maria de Oliva, had Incan blood. She was such a beautiful baby that she was called Rose and that name remained.

As she grew older, she became more and more beautiful but she became afraid that her great beauty might be a temptation to someone. She purposely made herself less attractive. St. Rose worked hard to support her poor parents and she humbly obeyed them, except when they tried to get her to marry. She would not marry.

Her life was given up to intense prayer and mortification. She had an intense devotion to the Infant Jesus and His Blessed Mother, and spent hours at their altar. She had to struggle against the objections, ridicule and the censure of others. Daily fasting was soon followed by perpetual abstinence from meat and by use of only the coarsest food and just sufficient to support life. Her days were filled with acts of charity and industry, her exquisite lace and embroidery helping to support her home, while her nights were devoted to prayer and penance.

She became a Dominican at age 20. She redoubled the severity and variety of her penances, constantly wearing a metal spiked crown, concealed by roses, and an iron chain about her waist. She continued this penance for years. Many miracles followed her death at age 31. She was canonized in 1671 by Pope Clement X (10th), the first American to be so honored.

She is represented in liturgical art wearing a crown of roses, a Dominican habit and an anchor. One painting is on the wall of the nave and a second painting is found in a passage way near the confessional. The paintings are by lesser known Mexican artists. She is the patroness of Lima, Peru, the Americas and the Philippines. There are many places in the New World named after Santa Rosa.

This insight into the Mission history was provided by the Carmel Mission Docent Association. If you would like to find out more about becoming a Docent, please contact Nancy Hardy at nhardycarmel@att.net or 831-624-8846.
Dear Friends of Carmel Mission,

This weekend our front cover features a group photo of our students and teachers from our wonderful school, Junípero Serra School. We are marking a national recognition of the work and value of Catholic education during Catholic Schools Week.

The cover photo is resplendent with happy, smiling faces on students and teachers. Our parish school is a happy community, where all learn to work and play together, all the time growing in the love and grace of God, as they put Christian virtues into action.

Our parish school inherits the name and the proud legacy from St. Junípero Serra, founder of our beautiful Mission, and the first teacher to open a school on this sacred site. St. Junípero taught many subjects to his students, but his greatest achievement was to introduce his students to the great news that each student is loved by God, whose only Son, Jesus the Christ, died and rose from the dead so that all who believe in Him may have eternal life.

I pay tribute to our parents who have deliberately chosen to offer their children the best possible education, an education that promotes and assists the holistic development of each student, - spiritual, physical, emotional, intellectual and social. Parents, you have chosen wisely!

Our energetic and enthusiastic Principal, Steve Henderson provides dynamic leadership and clear 2020 vision for our school, as we move ...Always Forward.. He is ably assisted by a group of dedicated teachers who have the wellbeing and holistic growth of their students at heart. Our sincere gratitude to you all.

Junípero Serra School owes it’s continued existence to the generosity of our parishioners and other Friends of Carmel Mission.

Without your support we would not be able to continue to offer to the next generation all that is best in Catholic education. We need your support more than ever before. If you feel that you would like our parish school to continue into the future, and that you can help ensure that we plan accordingly, please contact me at: montereypriest@gmail.com

My sincere thanks for all the support that you give to our parish school. Let’s all play our part in continuing to have those happy, smiling faces grace our school playground.

HAPPY CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK!

Blessings,

Fr. Paul
