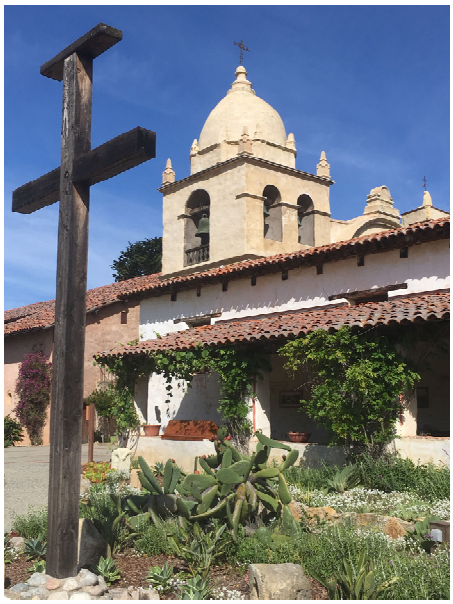
Second Sunday in Ordinary Time — January 14, 2018

Your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you.
— 1 Corinthians 6:19a



A common theme throughout the readings today is listening to God's call with an open heart and embracing it fully. In the reading from the First Book of Samuel, Samuel hears a voice calling to him while he is sleeping. He is willing to respond and runs to Eli. Eventually Eli realizes that it is God who is calling Samuel and helps him to direct his response to God. God continues to call each of us though sometimes, like Samuel, we need help in determining what voices or callings are coming from God. Samuel also shows us the importance of creating a space and an openness for God to call and be heard. If we are always busy and surrounded by constant noise, it is difficult to hear God. As we enter this new calendar year, take a moment to have some quiet time and allow God to speak to you without distractions. Then as a community, let us all boldly proclaim, "Here am I Lord, I come to do your will!"

ANNOUNCEMENTS — DOCENT CORNER

Theology on Tap

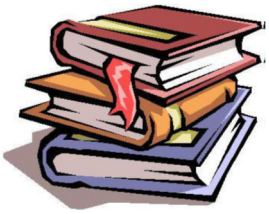
Wednesday, January 31st, 7:00 PM

London Bridge Pub,
256 Figueroa Street
(at the foot of Wharf 2), Monterey.

Our speaker this month will be Rev. Peter Crivello, Moderator of the Curia of the Diocese and former pastor at San Carlos Cathedral. Fr. Peter will lead a discussion on "Lent, a Matter of the Heart." Many of us approach Lent as a season of self-denial, but it's really a time of opening our hearts to Christ and making room for him in our lives. Let's look at that as we prepare for Ash Wednesday. Join us for interesting and enlightening conversation as we delve deeper into our faith, and enjoy dinner with friends. London Bridge Pub was voted "Best Fish and Chips on the Central Coast" for the 5th year in a row! All are welcome!

Join Monterey Theology on Tap on Facebook!
You can also send questions to Deacon Warren Hoy at whoy@dioceseofmonterey.org.
We hope to see you there!

Next Selection, Carmel Mission Book Club



The next selection for the Carmel Mission Book Club is Strangers in a Strange Land by Archbishop Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M.
Chaput offers a compelling reflection on the person of Jesus Christ, the nature of the Church, the urgency of radical faith, and the redemptive power of beauty – all in the spirit of Psalm 8 and the enduring words of Irenaeus: "The glory of God is man fully alive."

The Book Club meets Saturdays at 2pm at MacMahon Center, and begins this selection January 13th. Refreshments are provided. All are welcome. Attendance and the book are free; a goodwill donation to cover the book and shipping is requested but not required.

DOCENT CORNER

The Matute Crown

This statue in the chapel to the left of the nave is an original artifact of the Carmel Mission and is California's first statue. It is the oldest shrine of Our Lady on the west coast of America (the oldest is in Santa Fe). The title, Our Lady of Bethlehem, honors Our Lady at the birth of Christ.

On the arrival of the Portolá expedition in Monterey in 1770, the statue, which had travelled on the ship San Antonio, was placed in the Carmel Mission by Fr. Serra. She became the patroness of sailors who landed in the port of Monterey.

As the Mission grew and prospered, the statue of Our Lady continued to be held in high esteem and veneration. When the statue was returned to the Mission (it was "lost" for many years), many of the artifacts associated with the statue were retuned. One of these was a silver crown for her head which was a gift of Don Juan Bautista de Matute.

Lt. Juan Bautista de Matute was a young Spanish Naval officer who arrived in Monterey in the mid 1770's. He was part of a naval expedition that explored the northwest coast but because of the very heavy storms, it was compelled to return to Monterey. A week later, the officers and crews from the 3 ships in the expedition went to the Carmel Mission to have a High Mass offered in honor of Our Lady of Bethlehem and in thanksgiving for a safe journey. Matute was one of those officers.

In 1798 (over 20 years later), a further offering was made by now Captain Matute in the form of a silver crown inscribed as a thanksgiving for relief from the storms. It reads: "From the devotion of Naval Lt. Don Juan de Matute, commander of frigate Purísima Concepcíon. He dedicates this crown in fulfillment of a vow, year 1798".

Capt. Matute was later killed at the Battle of Trafalgar in 1805.

This insight into the Mission history was provided by the Carmel Mission Docent Association.

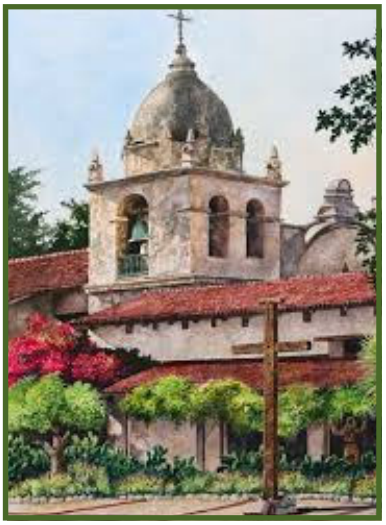
STEWARDSHIP

Painting of Saint Vibiana, Part 2

During the first Vatican Council of 1860, Pope Pius IX announced that the sacred remains of Saint Vibiana would be retained with the province of any Bishop who would agree to build a cathedral in her name. Bishop Tadeo Amat y Brusi of the Monterey- Los Angles Diocese, accepted the Popes wishes and Saint Vibiana was made a Patroness Saint of the Diocese.

The relics of Saint Vibiana, once shipped to California, were stored in Our Lady of Sorrow Church in Santa Barbara. A fire destroyed the building and much was lost except for the glass coffin containing the relics of Saint Vibiana, which survived intact. Soon thereafter in 1876, the Los Angeles Cathedral of Saint Vibiana was completed.

In honor of the new patroness paintings were commissioned and placed in all the parish churches of the Diocese of Monterey - Los Angeles. A similar painting to the one that hangs in the Mission Carmel Basilica is displayed at Mission San Juan Bautista in the Lady of Guadalupe Chapel.
The sacred remains of Saint Vibiana are now entombed in the mausoleum of the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels. The former Cathedral of Saint Vibiana is now a city event venue and part of the public library system of Los Angeles.



Thank You for your Stewardship!

Your continued generosity for the week ending 1/07/2018

Plate Collections: $14,100.65
Total Weekly Contributions: $14,100.65

I thank you for your sense of Stewardship and your great generosity.
Blessings of Joy, Hope and Peace—Fr. Paul, Pastor.

Our Lady Of Lourdes

Feast Day February 11th

Lourdes is a small town in southwestern France that became famous for the Marian appearance of Our Lady of Lourdes in 1858. On February 11 of that year, a 14 year-old local girl, Bernadette, claimed a beautiful lady appeared to her in the remote Grotto of Massabielle. The lady later appeared another 17 times, and identified herself as "The Immaculate Conception". Faithful believe her to be the Blessed Virgin Mary, who told Bernadette to tell the people this:

" I am the Immaculate Conception, go drink at the spring and bathe in its waters."

BLESS YOU! BLESS YOU!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Because of the current flu epidemic, we will temporarily cease to offer our neighbor a greeting at the beginning of mass and at the Sign of Peace.
If you have cold or flu symptoms, kindly refrain from taking the chalice at Communion time, until you are well again.

Please remember all our sick brothers and sisters in your prayers.

I wish you blessings of good health and great happiness,

Fr. Paul

Pastor at Carmel Mission
