FR. PAUL'S WEEKLY LETTER

Dear Friend of Carmel Mission,

In the Gospel today we see a beautiful example of our Savior lovingly giving his friend Peter something he desperately needs, healing. Peter's love for Jesus has not diminished in any way since His Death and Resurrection. If anything, the wild exuberance with which Peter jumps in the water to be close to his Lord as quickly as possible is evidence of his profound love. But Peter is wounded by his betrayal of Jesus at the time of His Passion. He denied three times that he even knew Jesus. Not because he did not love Him but because he was afraid. Peter wanted to be someone who was ready to die with Jesus, but when the moment came, his courage failed him.

Jesus knew that this would be the case, and it did not change how Jesus felt about Peter. Jesus saw in Peter the pastoral zeal that would allow him to be the first leader of His Church on earth. But Peter's denial had changed how Peter felt about himself, and, out of love, Jesus offers him a chance for healing. Peter denied Jesus three times, and Jesus offers him an opportunity to profess his love three times. Jesus also tells him how he can best express that love, by caring for Jesus' flock. Out of a situation of shame and fear, Jesus brings healing, peace and purpose.

I am sure you can think of a time in your life when the answer to your prayer was not what you expected, or perhaps even what you wanted, I know that I can. But, with the benefit of hindsight, perhaps it was exactly what you needed? Peter was frustrated, even distressed that Jesus kept asking him, "do you love me?" as if He did not already know. But just as he had denied Jesus three times, Peter had to affirm his love three times as well. Jesus knew what he needed to heal and move on. God knows, better than us, what we need to heal, to experience peace, to find purpose. Part of our faith is trusting in God's answers to our prayers.

I wish you and your loved ones Easter blessings of good health and great joy. As war continues to rage in our wounded world, please join me in praying for peace and healing,

Fr. Paul

Scripture Message

In the Gospel today we find the disciples having returned to Peter and other's previous line of work, fishing. Peter announces to the others that he is going out fishing and they all decide to tag along. It is good for Peter that they do, because it is the beloved disciple who recognizes the stranger for who He truly is, the Lord. Jesus address them as children, and it is with childlike exuberance and abandon that Peter leaps into the water to get close to Jesus, leaving his friends and his catch behind. Jesus later offers Peter redemption for his three pronged betrayal. Jesus asks Peter three times if he loves Him. Peter grows increasingly adamant and perhaps upset, insisting that Jesus knows how much he loves Him. Jesus does, of course, but in offering Peter the opportunity to make his profession of love three times, he helps to erase the sting of his earlier denial. Jesus also gives Peter the important instruction to tend His flock on earth, "feed my lambs, tend my sheep, feed my sheep." In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, the disciples are exactly where they had feared to be, dragged in front of the Sanhedrin. But these are not the same men who fled the cross and hid in the darkened room. Empowered by the Holy Spirit, they not only stand their ground, they chastise the Sanhedrin for their part in Jesus' death and leave undeterred by the instruction to stop preaching in Jesus' Name. Instead they are happy that they have been chosen to face difficulty because of their allegiance to Him. The life of a disciple is not always easy. When you have felt challenged in living out your discipleship, and how did the Holy Spirit inspire you to persevere?

Altar Flowers Opportunity

The Altar Flowers are given today in memory of Connie Yasinow by Kathy Anderson.

As we have been live streaming the Mass and providing other videos of the Mission and its grounds, we have received so much positive feedback from our community on the features of the flowers in our beautiful Mission gardens. The beauty of nature is a concrete reminder of the beauty of God, in whose image we are made. When we enjoy beautiful flowers, plants and trees we are celebrating the God's gift of the natural world.

We are so happy to continue the beauty of altar flowers at our Masses each week. We invite you to consider sponsoring a bouquet for $90 in memory or honor of a loved one, to celebrate a birthday or anniversary or in thanksgiving to God.

The altar flowers will be a part of our live streamed Mass as well as our outdoor Mass each Sunday and your dedication will included in our weekly e-bulletin.

Please contact Laura at liturgy@carmelmission.org for more information and to schedule your gift.

Thank you so much for your generosity and for helping to ensure that these symbols of beauty and life are part of our weekly celebrations.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we journey through the Season of Advent and draw ever closer to our celebration of Christmas, I wanted to send you a report on the state of our wonderful parish.

Our Advent theme, I Am For You, reminds us that our loving God is always on our side, despite any difficulties that we may have to encounter.

Just as God is for us, I am exceptionally conscious of the fact that You Are For Your Parish, your beloved Mission. You show that in so many ways. You selflessly give of your time, your talents, and your treasure. Your constant generosity never ceases to amaze me.

So, at this time of year, I have requested that our Parish Finance Council provide you with a report of where we stand. I thank our Council on your behalf.

They look after your interests so very well.

My special thanks to Al Nikora, our Council Chair, for putting the following report together.

During the Covid pandemic, our parish has faced extraordinary challenges and dealt with constantly changing conditions. Our primary goal has been to ensure your safety and well-being. I believe that we have used our time wisely and well in order to achieve that goal. We Are For You!

I count myself very fortunate as your Pastor, that I have an excellent team working with me and going to extraordinary lengths to ensure that our Mission parish is the best that it can be.
