Fr. Paul's Weekly Letter

Dear Friend of Carmel Mission,

How many times have you prayed the Lord's Prayer? Over a lifetime it is surely too many times to count. The first disciples were sometimes slow to understand Jesus' teaching, but in this instance they are completely accurate in their observations and their request. They have seen Jesus pray, not once, but often. They have seen prayer restore and strengthen Him. They want to know how to pray as He does. And Jesus obliges, encouraging us all to pray to His Father as our own Father. The loving relationship Jesus has with His Father is available to all of us as children of God. This was a radical idea at the time, but it now shapes the very heart of our understanding of God.

Since May 2020 our Holy Father, Pope Francis, has regularly used his weekly Wednesday audiences to teach us about prayer. Transcripts of his brief talks are available online on the Vatican's website, and I find them to be inspiring reflections that open my eyes to new and beautiful ideas about prayer. In his catechesis on April 21, 2021, "The Vocal Prayer" Pope Francis discusses the Lord's prayer specifically. We may feel that God knows our needs, likely better than we do, so there is no reason that we need to tell God what we want and need. However, Pope Francis says coming to God with our pleas helps to build trust and hope in our hearts. The Our Father includes four petitions for our own personal needs: give us our daily bread; forgive us our trespasses; lead us not into temptation; and deliver us from evil. Pope Francis promises, "Everything is there, in that prayer. It is a prayer we should say often."

The Lord's Prayer is also a truly ecumenical prayer. Not only a treasure of our Catholic faith, it is beloved across many Christian denominations, making it a prayer we can pray together with our brothers and sisters from other faith traditions. In our increasingly divided and divisive world, the prayer of Jesus' heart has the power to draw us together in new unity.

I wish you and your loved ones blessings of good health, great hope, and answered prayers.

Fr. Paul

Scripture Message

Why do we pray? It is not to impose our will on God, but to ask God to make us available His will, to share our concerns with God, and to place these under God's loving judgment. It is, therefore, not an effort to change God, but to change ourselves. Of all the evangelists, Luke speaks most about prayer. His Gospel begins (1:10) and ends (24:53) in the context of prayer. At significant moments in his life, Jesus prays, and his example leads the disciples to ask him, "Lord, teach us to pray just as John taught his disciples" (11:1). The Lukan version of Jesus's response expresses the deepest reality of Jesus's relationship with his God, into which he wants his disciples to be drawn. Our familiarity with the Lord's Prayer may dull our appreciation of its radical teaching about prayer. It is to be the prayer of a community that is conscious both of its intimate relationship with God and its presence in and responsibility for the world. In both testaments, God is "Father," a metaphor vastly different from that of the powerful Roman emperor, the "father of the homeland," or the authoritarian father of the family social unit. Especially in the Gospels, God is the Abba of Jesus, in loving, faithful, and intimate relationship with the Beloved Son. The kingdom for which disciples pray is not a kingdom of political power, but one that belongs to the poor, the liberated, the excluded, and forgiven sinners. That we may be changed, we pray for bread, forgiveness, and deliverance. We also need to be nourished with one another's forgiveness, because God will never starve us of forgiveness, and God's behavior must be the norm for His sons and daughters. To live in this way will save us at the time of "the final test." Jesus affirms what should be the quality of our prayer by telling two parables. What is described in the parable of the Friend at Midnight concerns three friends: the one who arrives unexpectedly, the host, and the one to whom the latter goes to ask for bread because he has run out of his own supply. If we are in an enduring relationship as prayerful "friends" with God, we can be assured that God will be hospitable to us in our need.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,

come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Altar Flowers Opportunity

The Altar Flowers are given in memory of Kathleen and Mary McLane by Frank and Mary Fritsch and in memory of Magdalena Vivas-Dote and Maria Faye by Vickie Peach

As we have been live streaming the Mass and providing other videos of the Mission and its grounds, we have received so much positive feedback from our community on the features of the flowers in our beautiful Mission gardens. The beauty of nature is a concrete reminder of the beauty of God, in whose image we are made. When we enjoy beautiful flowers, plants and trees we are celebrating the God's gift of the natural world.

We are so happy to continue the beauty of altar flowers at our Masses each week. We invite you to consider sponsoring a bouquet for $90 in memory or honor of a loved one, to celebrate a birthday or anniversary or in thanksgiving to God.

The altar flowers will be a part of our live streamed Mass as well as our outdoor Mass each Sunday and your dedication will included in our weekly e-bulletin.

Please contact Laura at liturgy@carmelmission.org for more information and to schedule your gift.

Thank you so much for your generosity and for helping to ensure that these symbols of beauty and life are part of our weekly celebrations.

We have met our 2022 AMA goal in record time!

Dear Friend of Carmel Mission,

My heart is full of joy as we celebrate the birthday of our Church this Pentecost weekend. You have added to that joy because of your amazing generosity. These words of gratitude are inadequate to express my appreciation of your selfless stewardship here at our beautiful Carmel Mission. WE HAVE EXCEEDED OUR GOAL OF $250,000.00 for our 2022 AMA Campaign, Safe and Sound. You truly are amazing!

Who would have believed that we would be winding down our campaign at the end of May? The Safe and Sound theme obviously resonated with you and you responded so generously. We live in uncertain times, never knowing what is waiting for us around the next corner. Our aim here at Carmel Mission is welcome all who come our way as our sisters and brothers in Christ.

We are welcoming back our many ministries in a safe and secure manner. We are enhancing the outdoor lighting, our security and our signage. We will be adding ramps and rails around our property to make it easier for us to get around. We will be keeping you posted as we continue to work on making your place of worship as safe and sound as possible.

May the Gifts of the Holy Spirit be yours in abundance this Pentecost and always. With great gratitude and many blessings,

Fr. Paul

Milagros

"Milagros are small metal religious charms found in many areas of Latin America. The word "Milagros" means "miracles". These small charms, often depicting arms, legs, praying people, animals and a wide range of other subjects are typically nailed to crosses or wooden statues. The use of Milagros is connected with an institution known as "manda". This is where a person will ask for a favor from a Saint. A heart might represent ideas as diverse as a heart condition, a romance, or any number of interpretations. Milagros are also carried for protection and good luck."

CARMEL MISSION
BASILICA

December 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we journey through the Season of Advent and draw ever closer to our celebration of Christmas, I wanted to send you a report on the state of our wonderful parish.

Our Advent theme, I Am For You, reminds us that our loving God is always on our side, despite any difficulties that we may have to encounter.

Just as God is for us, I am exceptionally conscious of the fact that You Are For Your Parish, your beloved Mission. You show that in so many ways. You selflessly give of your time, your talents, and your treasure. Your constant generosity never ceases to amaze me.

So, at this time of year, I have requested that our Parish Finance Council provide you with a report of where we stand. I thank our Council on your behalf.

They look after your interests so very well.

My special thanks to Al Nicora, our Council Chair, for putting the following report together.

During the Covid pandemic, our parish has faced extraordinary challenges and dealt with constantly changing conditions. Our primary goal has been to ensure your safety and well-being. I believe that we have used our time wisely and well in order to achieve that goal. We Are For You!

I count myself very fortunate as your Pastor, that I have an excellent team working with me and going to extraordinary lengths to ensure that our Mission parish is the best that it can be.
