FR. PAUL'S WEEKLY LETTER

Dear Friend of Carmel Mission,

Jesus' opening line in this Gospel may strike an alarming note for us residents of California. We are all too familiar with the destructive power of wildfires and the havoc they can cause. But the fire Jesus is referring to is a purifying, not a devastating, force. Jesus is on fire with a wild love for the world. He cannot wait for this love to catch fire in all people and bring about the Kingdom of Heaven. Earlier in Luke's gospel (3:16-17), Jesus' precursor, John the Baptist, spoke of a baptism that would be greater than his purificatory rite: a baptism with the fire of the Holy Spirit that the Messiah would enkindle. Now we hear from the Messiah Himself, who is preparing His disciples for the path they will follow, one which may drive them into conflict, even with their own families.

It is rare for Jesus to speak of Himself in the first person in the Synoptic Gospels. Here it is an indication of the urgency He wishes to communicate to His listeners. Today's Gospel message is, at first glance, a shocking one from the Prince of Peace. But the peace Jesus promises, and the division that may be part of the journey to that peace, are not necessarily incompatible. The adult Jesus who is speaking to us was the child whose birth was announced as heralding peace (Luke 2:14) but was also recognized by Simeon as a source of division (Luke 2:34). Jesus' peace is not a comfortable acceptance of the status quo that avoids conflict. It is a burning decisiveness with uncompromising love at its center. We may ourselves be singled out with others' derision for our discipleship, even those closest to us.

We all have something we are fired up about, be it politics, or sports, or which country truly makes the finest whisky. In this Gospel Jesus is inviting and encouraging us to be the most fired up about our faith, to join Him in spreading the blazing inferno that is God's love for God's creation.

I wish you and your loved ones continued blessings for good health, great hope, and fiery peace,

Fr. Paul

Dear brothers and sisters,

Some of you already met me during the masses. For those of you who have not: I'm father Rey. I was born in Florida but grew up in Mexico. After my studies in Chicago God called me into the diocese of Monterrey where I served as a deacon in Hollister. On the 19th of June 2021 Bishop Danny ordained me a priest and asked me to keep on serving in the parish of St. Benedict's and Sacred Heart in Hollister. Having had a wonderful experience in my first year as a newly ordained priest, I am looking forward to sharing our faith together here at the Mission. It is a privilege for me to be able to serve you in this beautiful and ancient basilica, where people have been living their faith for more than 250 years and where the first Saint of California is buried.

Saint Junípero Serra used to say "always go forward". So let us go forward walking together in faith, knowing that you are in my prayers and that the joy of our faith unites us in the celebration of life.

Blessings,

Fr. Reynaldo

Scripture Message

In the first reading, the princes are mad at Jeremiah because they consider what he is preaching to be a threat to the well-being of their city. They find that, by speaking as a prophet, Jeremiah is "not interested in the welfare of our people, but in their ruin." Jeremiah is speaking right before the Israelites are going to be taken over by the Babylonians. They are about to be destroyed, and when Jeremiah calls them to better their faith, it's too much. The psalm can be read from the point of view of Jeremiah, who was thrown into a literal pit of destruction. The psalmist here implores the Lord with the verse "Lord, come to my aid," while detailing all the ways in which the Lord has done this. Aid from the Lord is not a singular event, but a constant petition, the results of which can be seen over and over. Our reading from Hebrews reminds us that we can find consolation that we journey with "so great a cloud of witnesses" that support and walk with us on our journey to follow Christ. We live not as isolated individuals but as a profound community of believers. With this, we can follow Christ with confidence and look forward with joy to the coming of the reign of God. Jesus's words in this gospel seem at odds with the rest of his message. Establishing division? That doesn't sound like a Christian worldview. However, Jesus is inviting us to recognize the reality of following him in our world: it will cause division. A follower of Christ, who willingly flips the assumptions and desires of the material world, will inevitably cause division. We are called to "set the world on fire," challenging the self-serving order of civilization and placing love at the center. The fire and water imagery point to a cleansing and refining that will be found at the end of time. For the past few weeks our gospel readings have discussed preparing for the end of days, and today's reading highlights just how significant of an event this will be. We know how destructive fire and water can be, but we also know the new life that can come from these basic elements.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,

come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Altar Flowers Opportunity

As we have been live streaming the Mass and providing other videos of the Mission and its grounds, we have received so much positive feedback from our community on the features of the flowers in our beautiful Mission gardens. The beauty of nature is a concrete reminder of the beauty of God, in whose image we are made. When we enjoy beautiful flowers, plants and trees we are celebrating the God's gift of the natural world.

We are so happy to continue the beauty of altar flowers at our Masses each week. We invite you to consider sponsoring a bouquet for $90 in memory or honor of a loved one, to celebrate a birthday or anniversary or in thanksgiving to God.

The altar flowers will be a part of our live streamed Mass as well as our outdoor Mass each Sunday and your dedication will be included in our weekly e-bulletin.

Please contact Laura at liturgy@carmelmission.org for more information and to schedule your gift.

Thank you so much for your generosity and for helping to ensure that these symbols of beauty and life are part of our weekly celebrations.

SAFE AND SOUND — AMA 2022

Thank you for supporting our Safe and Sound Campaign.

DONATE

Diocesan Goal: $55,700

We have met our 2022 AMA goal in record time!

Dear Friend of Carmel Mission,

My heart is full of joy as we celebrate the birthday of our Church this Pentecost weekend. You have added to that joy because of your amazing generosity. These words of gratitude are inadequate to express my appreciation of your selfless stewardship here at our beautiful Carmel Mission. WE HAVE EXCEEDED OUR GOAL OF $250,000.00 for our 2022 AMA Campaign, Safe and Sound. You truly are amazing!

Who would have believed that we would be winding down our campaign at the end of May? The Safe and Sound theme obviously resonated with you and you responded so generously. We live in uncertain times, never knowing what is waiting for us around the next corner. Our aim here at Carmel Mission is welcome all who come our way as our sisters and brothers in Christ.

We are welcoming back our many ministries in a safe and secure manner. We are enhancing the outdoor lighting, our security and our signage. We will be adding ramps and rails around our property to make it easier for us to get around. We will be keeping you posted as we continue to work on making your place of worship as safe and sound as possible.

May the Gifts of the Holy Spirit be yours in abundance this Pentecost and always. With great gratitude and many blessings,

Fr. Paul

CARMEL MISSION COMMUNITY

Carmel Mission Book Club

Book Club meets every Friday in Crespi Hall at 1:30 pm

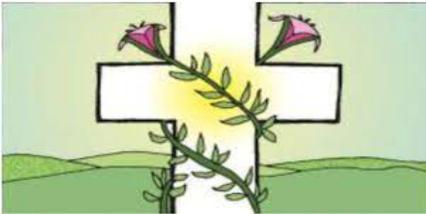

On August 5th, our book club will begin reading Manifesting God by Fr. Thomas Keating. This book explores the principles of contemplative prayer — finding the silent space of retreat into our “inner room” as told by Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew.

Meetings are held in Crespi Hall on Friday afternoons at 1:30 with a ZOOM link option for anyone wishing to attend remotely. Please email christina.renna@gmail.com for information.

Books are available at the meeting, and everyone is welcome to attend at any time!

Homebound Ministry

Dear Parishioners of Carmel Mission,

If you or someone you know cannot get to mass and would like to receive Holy Communion, please contact our Homebound Ministry Coordinator, Joan Brophy Thomas at (831) 624 3074.

Please stay safe and sound, Blessings,

Fr. Paul

Our Ministry Directory and web pages are under development. Please click on the ministry names in red below to contact our ministries.

The Altar Society provides care and upkeep for the altar linens and supports additional needs of the altar.

The Carmel Mission Bereavement Ministry provides caring consolation and spiritual support to parish families who are grieving the death of a loved one.

The Bible Study holds weekly meetings to study and discuss various books of the Bible.

The Book Club holds weekly meetings to read and discuss selected books.

The Carmel Mission Docent Ministry provides historical stewardship for the Mission and its art and artifacts. The Docents provide a welcoming presence and historical information to our many visitors.

Eucharistic Adoration is a special devotion whereby worshipers dedicate their time to be present with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament to honor, adore and pray to Him.

The Faith Formation Ministry provides religious education for the faithful of all ages.

The False Farmworkers Program Ministry procures and distributes food and clothing to farmworkers and their families, who are in need.

The Homebound Eucharistic Ministry practices the Corporal works of mercy. Members visit and comfort the sick and the elderly, and bring Communion to those who have difficulty attending Mass.

The Women's & Men's I-HELP (Interfaith Homeless Emergency Lodging Program) activities at Carmel Mission are one of the many Monterey Peninsula churches, faith communities, or service organizations that provide overnight accommodation, a nutritious hot meal, and a caring community to homeless men and women one evening a month.

The Knights of Columbus were founded in 1882 on the principles of charity, unity and fraternity. The Carmel Mission, Council 4593, Knights of Columbus, provides hospitality and fundraising support to our parish community.

The Liturgical Ministry supports all aspects of our parish liturgy.

The Carmel Mission Basilica Schola Cantorum is a traditional choral ensemble which assists with the music leadership every week at our 11:00 a.m. Sunday Mass. The repertoire of the group is drawn from the works of both contemporary and traditional Catholic composers.

December 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we journey through the Season of Advent and draw ever closer to our celebration of Christmas, I wanted to send you a report on the state of our wonderful parish.

Our Advent theme, I Am For You, reminds us that our loving God is always on our side, despite any difficulties that we may have to encounter.

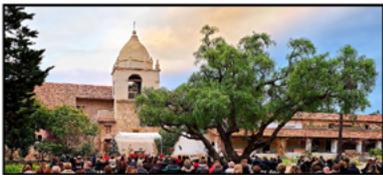

Just as God is for us, I am exceptionally conscious of the fact that You Are For Your Parish, your beloved Mission. You show that in so many ways. You selflessly give of your time, your talents, and your treasure. Your constant generosity never ceases to amaze me.

So, at this time of year, I have requested that our Parish Finance Council provide you with a report of where we stand. I thank our Council on your behalf.

They look after your interests so very well.

My special thanks to Al Nicora, our Council Chair, for putting the following report together.

During the Covid pandemic, our parish has faced extraordinary challenges and dealt with constantly changing conditions. Our primary goal has been to ensure your safety and well-being. I believe that we have used our time wisely and well in order to achieve that goal. We Are For You!

I count myself very fortunate as your Pastor, that I have an excellent team working with me and going to extraordinary lengths to ensure that our Mission parish is the best that it can be.
