Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 9, 2022

Dear Friend of Carmel Mission,

In his letter to Timothy St. Paul says something I think is crucial to our understanding of, not only this Sunday's Gospel reading, but what Sacred Scripture is fundamentally trying to teach us - "God's word is not chained." (2 Tim: 9) Indeed, God and God's word are not chained by the limits of human understanding. God's love transcends whatever barriers we may create.

Last week I talked about the disciples learning to be agents in their own spiritual growth. There is much personal agency at work in today's Gospel as well. The lepers were complete social outcasts, required to announce their presence so they could be avoided at all costs, and reliant on the charity of those taking pains to be nowhere near them. They defy these norms and call out to Jesus not for alms, but for help. Jesus could have healed them instantaneously but instead asks that they have faith in His healing power and go show themselves to the priests, who would be the ones to verify that they could reenter their former lives. They head out to do so still afflicted, believing that Jesus will heal them, which, of course, He does.

What happened to the other nine lepers? Where they all just ungrateful wretches with no care for the great gift Jesus had given them? I do not think so. More than likely, it was not that they were completely ungrateful, but that gratitude was not their first priority. They had just undergone a life changing event, they could see their families and friends again, resume normal life, going back to thank Jesus was a low priority. In our demanding, fast-paced world, it can be hard to make gratitude a priority. We often go to God with a list of our (legitimate) needs and concerns, forgetting to first thank God for all the good He already gives us. As we see with the Samaritan, gratitude is two way street, one which often leads to even greater blessings.

I wish you and your loved ones continues blessings of good health, great hope, and abundant gratitude,

Fr. Paul

Scripture Message

With Jesus we are traveling along the border between Galilee and Samaria, still on the way to Jerusalem. No one would really take such a circuitous route, but Luke is not interested in geography except as it serves his theology. He wishes to remind us that Jesus is at the territorial boundary of Samaria, whose people were despised by the Jews for their "hybrid" faith. The Samaritans reciprocated with their own expressions of hostility to the Jews, whom they considered religious and social outcasts. In the miracle that follows, Jesus is a marginal person with the marginalized: with the ten men who must keep their distance because of an infectious skin disease. So abhorrent was this condition that description, taboos, and rituals connected with it were detailed in the Book of Leviticus (chapters 13 and 14). Keeping their distance, the men do not shout the prescribed warning words, "Unclean! Unclean!" (Lev 13:45-46) or ask for alms, but as one they call out for Jesus's mercy. They name him as "Master," a title not found in Luke's gospel on the lips of anyone except the disciples. Jesus offers no healing touch, no eyes raised to heaven, no prayer over them; there is no tugging at his robe with diseased fingers. All he offers is his word that crosses the gap between them. Before they are healed, Jesus challenges the ten lepers to the obedience of faith in his word. He tells them to go and observe the ritual that was usually observed after the healing of a leper, when a clean bill of health obtained from a Jewish priest would enable a person to reenter society. They obey. "As they were going they were cleansed." The first reading gives us a parallel story to the Gospel. Namaan is cleansed of his leprosy in a foreshadowing of baptism by the prophet Elisha. Once healed, Namaan is filled with gratitude and tries to thank him with a gift. Elisha refuses, and Namaan turns his gratitude into faith in Elisha's God. Both Namaan and the ten lepers of the Gospel are healed because they follow the directions of one who seeks to help them. In both of these situations, though the healer could have made it instantaneous, those who are to be healed need to express a desire for healing and act upon it.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,

come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Altar Flowers Opportunity

As we have been live streaming the Mass and providing other videos of the Mission and its grounds, we have received so much positive feedback from our community on the features of the flowers in our beautiful Mission gardens. The beauty of nature is a concrete reminder of the beauty of God, in whose image we are made. When we enjoy beautiful flowers, plants and trees we are celebrating the God's gift of the natural world.

We are so happy to continue the beauty of altar flowers at our Masses each week. We invite you to consider sponsoring a bouquet for $90 in memory or honor of a loved one, to celebrate a birthday or anniversary or in thanksgiving to God.

The altar flowers will be a part of our live streamed Mass as well as our outdoor Mass each Sunday and your dedication will be included in our weekly e-bulletin.

Please contact Laura at liturgy@carmelmission.org for more information and to schedule your gift.

Thank you so much for your generosity and for helping to ensure that these symbols of beauty and life are part of our weekly celebrations.

SAFE AND SOUND — AMA 2022

Thank you for supporting our Safe and Sound Campaign.

DONATE

Diocesan Goal: $55,700

We have met our 2022 AMA goal in record time!

Dear Friend of Carmel Mission,

My heart is full of joy as we celebrate the birthday of our Church this Pentecost weekend. You have added to that joy because of your amazing generosity. These words of gratitude are inadequate to express my appreciation of your selfless stewardship here at our beautiful Carmel Mission. WE HAVE EXCEEDED OUR GOAL OF $250,000.00 for our 2022 AMA Campaign, Safe and Sound. You truly are amazing!

Who would have believed that we would be winding down our campaign at the end of May? The Safe and Sound theme obviously resonated with you and you responded so generously. We live in uncertain times, never knowing what is waiting for us around the next corner. Our aim here at Carmel Mission is welcome all who come our way as our sisters and brothers in Christ.

We are welcoming back our many ministries in a safe and secure manner. We are enhancing the outdoor lighting, our security and our signage. We will be adding ramps and rails around our property to make it easier for us to get around. We will be keeping you posted as we continue to work on making your place of worship as safe and sound as possible.

May the Gifts of the Holy Spirit be yours in abundance this Pentecost and always. With great gratitude and many blessings,

Fr. Paul

The Carmel Mission Basilica Schola Cantorum is a traditional choral ensemble which assists with the music leadership every week at our 11:00 a.m. Sunday Mass. The repertoire of the group is drawn from the works of both contemporary and traditional Catholic composers.

Saint Francis of Assisi Patron Saint of Animals and Ecology

Saint Francis, perhaps the best-loved of all saints, was born in Assisi, Italy, in 1181. Young Francis enjoyed a life of luxury and fine clothes. One day, Jesus spoke to Francis from the crucifix in the little chapel of San Damiano: "Go, rebuild My house." Francis gave away his riches to the poor and lived for Jesus. He went about as a barefoot beggar, telling people that God loved each of them so much that He sent His only Son to die to save them. Francis also loved all of God's animals as his brothers and sisters. Others joined Francis in his care for the sick and lepers, and in 1224, Francis received from God the stigmata—the visible wounds of the Crucifixion. Francis died at Assisi in 1226, and two years later, was canonized a saint.

December 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we journey through the Season of Advent and draw ever closer to our celebration of Christmas, I wanted to send you a report on the state of our wonderful parish.

Our Advent theme, I Am For You, reminds us that our loving God is always on our side, despite any difficulties that we may have to encounter.

Just as God is for us, I am exceptionally conscious of the fact that You Are For Your Parish, your beloved Mission. You show that in so many ways. You selflessly give of your time, your talents, and your treasure. Your constant generosity never ceases to amaze me.

So, at this time of year, I have requested that our Parish Finance Council provide you with a report of where we stand. I thank our Council on your behalf.

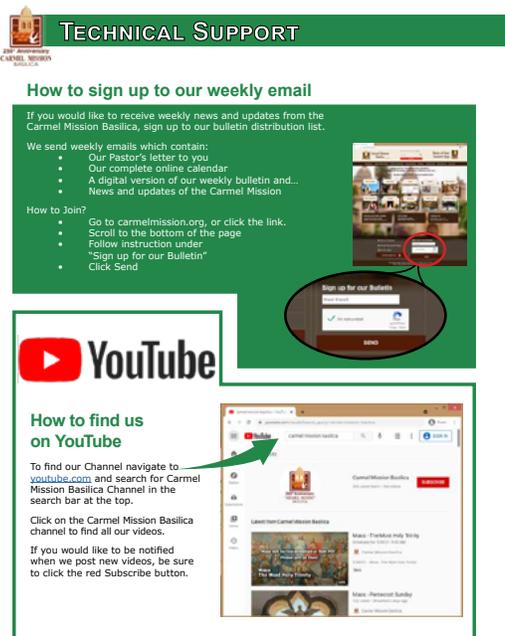

They look after your interests so very well.

My special thanks to Al Nicora, our Council Chair, for putting the following report together.

During the Covid pandemic, our parish has faced extraordinary challenges and dealt with constantly changing conditions. Our primary goal has been to ensure your safety and well-being. I believe that we have used our time wisely and well in order to achieve that goal. We Are For You!

I count myself very fortunate as your Pastor, that I have an excellent team working with me and going to extraordinary lengths to ensure that our Mission parish is the best that it can be.
