FR. PAUL'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners of Carmel Mission:

Many of you may know that the Diocese of Monterey has recently taken legal action to safeguard donations that were made to the Carmel Mission Foundation for the benefit of the Mission.

According to Carmel Mission Foundation's Articles of Incorporation and its stated purpose, all such donations were intended to be used solely for the restoration and preservation of Carmel Mission.

It came to our attention that the Carmel Mission Foundation announced it would be winding up its affairs and wanted to give the funds to the Monterey Peninsula Foundation, an organization which has no connection with the Carmel Mission or the Diocese of Monterey.

It is the desire of the Diocese of Monterey that all funds raised by the Carmel Mission Foundation be used for the purposes for which they were intended, i.e. the restoration and preservation of Carmel Mission.

It is unfortunate that we have reached this point with the CMF, but both Bishop Daniel E. Garcia (Diocese of Monterey) and I, as your Pastor, are in agreement and support of taking this necessary legal action in order to safeguard the funds that were collected to enhance, restore and preserve Carmel Mission Basilica.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Paul

Scripture Reflection

Today's Gospel proclaims that God is not intent on judging or condemning the world, but judgment will happen – not as a future event but as a present reality for which we ourselves are responsible when we accept or reject the Son. Today's feast invites us remember God's most gracious hospitality, most free and generous love for all creation. It also points to a truism of our God, our God is always with us. God is not one to stay up in the clouds. Just the opposite, in the First Reading, Moses encounters the Lord coming down from the clouds, so close as to have a conversation with Moses. Often psalms of praise are repetitive in nature, but far from being boring, this form of Hebrew poetry has a great elegance to it. The repeated phrase, "praiseworthy and exalted above all forever," cycles back after lines that draw us deeper and deeper into something that cannot be fully expressed in words. This is a lovely, poetic depiction of the mystery of the Trinity that we celebrate today. We cannot fully comprehend it, but we can be drawn more fully into it. As our understanding grows deeper and realer, so too can our praise. The second reading finally names all three members of the Trinity explicitly. St. Paul uses their names as a greeting, one we still use in Mass. The encouragement St. Paul offers the Corinthians is still needed today. In this letter St. Paul has had to deal with the pain of attacks on his apostolic credentials, he has admitted his own weakness, and has needed to write strong criticism of the often cantankerous Church he still loves so dearly. In his closing, he bids the Corinthians to live in joy, peace, and love with one another, because this is the life that reflects their trinitarian, God of love and relationship.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,

come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

On Sunday, June 11,
the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ,
we will resume Holy Communion
under both species at our weekend Masses.

Altar Flowers Opportunity

As we have been live streaming the Mass and providing other videos of the Mission and its grounds, we have received so much positive feedback from our community on the features of the flowers in our beautiful Mission gardens. The beauty of nature is a concrete reminder of the beauty of God, in whose image we are made. When we enjoy beautiful flowers, plants and trees we are celebrating the God's gift of the natural world.

We are so happy to continue the beauty of altar flowers at our Masses each week. We invite you to consider sponsoring a bouquet for $90 in memory or honor of a loved one, to celebrate a birthday or anniversary or in thanksgiving to God.

The altar flowers will be a part of our live streamed Mass as well as our outdoor Mass each Sunday and your dedication will be included in our weekly e-bulletin.

Please contact Laura at liturgy@carmelmission.org for more information and to schedule your gift.

Thank you so much for your generosity and for helping to ensure that these symbols of beauty and life are part of our weekly celebrations.

LEGACY SOCIETY

Click the thumbnail to the right to watch a short video about the Carmel Mission Legacy Society by Fr. Paul.

What is Legacy Society?

We owe an untold debt of gratitude to countless individuals — over many decades — whose benevolence made today's Mission a reality. Their generosity not only restored the Mission's structures to their former glory but also helped restore a house of faith, education, and outreach that is deeply rooted in our community.

This legacy of giving is the inspiration behind the Carmel Mission Legacy Society. Its purpose is to acknowledge past gifts and honor those who include Carmel Mission in their estate planning.

Legacy gifts provide a unique opportunity to ensure perpetual care for Carmel Mission. Your gift will help this historic and sacred church serve as a house of worship, an educational resource, and support for the most vulnerable in our community, for generations to come.

Ways You Can Give

Through planned giving, there are many ways to make a gift to Carmel Mission without impacting your own financial future. When you include Carmel Mission in your will or living trust or as a beneficiary of your retirement plan or life-insurance policy, you can plan, with confidence, that your generosity will support the Mission after your lifetime.

A legacy gift does not alter your current lifestyle in any way and allows you to leave a legacy without giving up your assets. It is important to note that the bequest is revocable, allowing you to change your mind at any time should your circumstances change.

FIRST LIBRARY OF CALIFORNIA

Among the many, many treasures we have the privilege of caring for at the Carmel Mission is the original Convento Library. Now an important part of the museum, the collection of books first assembled by Junipero Serra represents a unique historical repository of texts brought to Carmel by a succession of Franciscan brothers over 50 years. The library as a whole is a wonderful collection of books put together by Serra and other university-trained theologians that represented more than just a practical missionary library. Our library is a smaller version of what you would have found in any theological seminary in the eighteenth century, in other words it was a study library as well as an assortment of liturgical texts and sermons. The majority of books date to the time of the founding of the missions, that is the second half of the eighteenth century, but many of the books are even older and were printed in Europe in the early seventeenth century. Most of the books are written in Spanish, of course, but some are also in Latin, at the time still the universal language of the Church, and a few others are in French or German. All told, we have close to 550 Mission-era books displayed in four book cases, constructed by Harry Downie for just this purpose.

If you look through the window into the library room, you'll notice that the books are shelved by size, not by subject, title, or author. This was a practical way of maximizing the use of space on the shelf, so that a case with smaller books had more shelves. On the wall to the left, Case I holds the largest books, and clockwise around the room you'll see that Case IV on the right holds the smallest books. The library was small enough during Serra's and Lasuen's time that there was no real need to organize the books by subject, since the padres pretty much knew all the books in the library and where they could be found. There was a shelf numbering system, though, developed by Fermin Lasuen around 1800, that identified each book spine by the case it was assigned to as well as a sequential number for its order in that case. A book labeled III 14 would belong in Case 3 as the fourteenth book in order. That way a book could always be returned to its proper place.

FIRST LIBRARY OF CALIFORNIA

Such a historical treasure house of knowledge deserves to be properly cataloged and shared with the wider world of scholars and enthusiasts who deal in religious texts of the Spanish missionary period. Although the library has been cataloged in the past, first as an inventory by Father Real in 1834, then by Harry Downie in 1966, and finally in 2006, our precious library warrants a modern, scientific bibliography that can be widely shared on the internet. Mission Santa Clara has established just such an online catalog through its university library system. A few months ago, I began a similar project, the goal of which is to catalog all of our Mission books in a way that meets the most stringent requirements of modern librarian science. The first phase is underway, which is a photographic survey of all 550 books. This involves creating a visual, digital record of each book's primary characteristics, e.g. the outer binding, the title page, any handwritten inscriptions or library stamps, and other features that will help us identify where the book came from and when it was published.

This first phase has already led to some remarkable discoveries. While many of the books are common pastoral and liturgical volumes, some are quite unique. These include a book in which pages with handwritten musical notation were pasted front and back, perhaps representing an original mission composition. Another book, commentaries on Aristotle's Metaphysics, is written entirely by hand. This manuscript, which is by definition the only one of its kind, is a copy of a university textbook, most likely used where Serra taught in Palma de Mallorca, and was possibly copied by one of his students. The coming months of exploration and cataloging are sure to uncover even more treasures and surprises, and I look forward to informing you about these in the months to come.

MISSION DOORS RESTORATION PROJECT

We have undertaken the much needed restoration of many of the beautiful wooden doors at Carmel Mission.

The doors of the Carmel Mission are based on designs seen throughout the California Mission Chain and designs replicated throughout the Southwest, Mexico, and Spain. We do have some information that is helpful..

For example the Mission's main entrance doors we are fairly certain are based on Sir Harry Downie's affinity of the doors at Mission Dolores.

MISSION DOORS RESTORATION PROJECT

The much heralded and appreciate “River of Life” door design has been given much attention as it is a prominent feature at many of our Historic Missions. From a traditional understandings that has grown over time the River of Life motif is a direct reference to Revelation 22:

1 And he showed me a river of water of life, bright as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb, 2 in the midst of the street thereof. And on this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve manner of fruits, yielding its fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

From and other perspective the three wavy lines have been linked to the trinity. The design of three is a common motif in Church architecture.

As you will see in the before and after photographs, the restoration has brought new life to many of the doors.

MISSION DOORS RESTORATION PROJECT

This project has also given us an opportunity to observe the diversity of architectural styles and incredible workmanship that went into creating the doors.

In a recent conversation pertaining to the unique design with noted Spanish Colonial architecture expert Gloria Giffords shared that all of these perspectives are “dandy ideas”. She shared we really don’t know where these interpretations come from because we don’t have any documentation from when this design was first introduced. In a world that offers so many answers and information it is good that our Mission Church still has a few more mysteries to share. It is even better that we continue to preserve and protect these unique architectural features for future generations to ponder and explore.
