FR. PAUL'S MESSAGE

Dear Friend of Carmel Mission,

I do not know if it is encouraging or discouraging to consider that politics was as much of a societal third rail in Jesus' time as it is today. In today's Gospel the Pharisees hope to entrap Jesus by forcing Him to comment on a thorny political issue, the paying of taxes to the occupying Romans. Of course, there is no good answer - if Jesus decries the tax, He opens Himself to arrest and prosecution from the Roman authorities and if He supports the tax, He takes the side of the oppressors against the oppressed. But the Pharisees yet again fail to comprehend that God's ways are not our binary ways, and Jesus deflects them with the response, "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

This answer has long been used to support the separation of Church and State, and indeed it draws a clear distinction between the political and spiritual realms. But it also implies that, as disciples, we have responsibilities in both. Involvement in human governance can be a part of our partnership with God, and a way we make the Kingdom of Heaven present on earth. God's work of love and justice can, and in some ways must, intersect with the political and social realms if we are to try and make this world more holy.

It is impossible to put far from our minds at this moment the atrocities occurring in the Middle East. Certainly, there are short- and long-term political consequences and considerations regarding the situation in Israel, Gaza, and the broader region. But what is undeniable is the toll that hatred and violence is taking on our brothers and sisters. Each person who has been killed, each person who has been taken hostage, each person trapped in desperate conditions with no relief in sight is a child of our loving God. God's heart is breaking as God's children war on one another. We must engage tirelessly in every possible process, from prayer to political action, to bring peace and reconciliation.

I wish you and your loved ones continues blessings of good health and new hope. Please join me in praying for peace in our wounded world,

Fr. Paul

October 17, 2023

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

War, whether it be in Ukraine or in the Middle East is terrible. It is heart wrenching for the people living in these respective locations, but also for family and friends who care about those who live there.

Today, Tuesday, October 17, Cardinal Pierbattista Pizzaballa, Archbishop Latin Primate of Jerusalem, called for us to join him in praying for Peace and Reconciliation in the Holy Land. We spiritually accompany him in prayer, not only today, but also in the days ahead. The terrible massacre of Israeli children, women, and men (young and old) on Saturday, October 7th (Our Lady of the Rosary) was unthinkable and horrific. Now, hostages are being held. There is no excuse for this kind of violence and hate, regardless of what country or people. Every act of violence and hate begets more violence and hate!

How many times have I cried out upon hearing of such an atrocity, “When will we learn, O Lord?” Amidst, these difficult days, it is easy to become cynical and disengaged when this War seems to be so distant from us here in the United States. Regardless of national origin, these are our brothers and sisters!

Cardinal Pizzaballa has urged Catholics to organize times of praying with Eucharistic Adoration and recitation of the Rosary, “to deliver to God the Father our thirst for peace, justice and reconciliation.” He also said, “In this time of sorrow and dismay, we do not want to remain helpless. We cannot let death and its sting (1 Cor 15-55) be the only word we hear.” “That is why we feel the need to pray, to turn our hearts to God the Father. Only in his way we can draw the strength and serenity needed to endure these hard times, by turning to him, in prayer and intercession, to implore and cry out to God amidst this anguish.”

As this war progresses, just as in Ukraine, let us be mindful of the humanitarian crisis that is growing exponentially every day. Innocent civilians, whether they be of Israeli or Palestinian descent are caught up in the middle of these acts of terror and destruction. There are NO winners!

Let us not forget to pray also for emergency and humanitarian workers: those who are assisting victims of this violence, who are in need of food, water, health care, and shelter. May our Lady of Peace intercede for all of us during this difficult time!

Your brother in Christ,

Most Reverend Daniel E. Garcia

Scripture Reflection

Determined to destroy Jesus, the Pharisees and the Herodians seize on the issue of the collection of the census tax. This was a tax imposed by the Roman Empire on every person of Judea. It was bitterly resented, especially by the poor. When Jesus is tackled about the tax issue, they are hoping to trap him. If he speaks out against it, he can be charged with sedition and arrested. If he supports the tax, he will discredit himself as a prophet in the eyes of the oppressed. Jesus reads the malice in their hearts, lets them know He is not deceived by their collusion, and He calls them hypocrites. Then Jesus springs His own trap. He asks them to show Him the coin used for the census tax. He does not have one Himself, but before his opponents have time to think, someone produces a coin. The coin required is Roman, and is considered blasphemous by most Jews. It not only bore the image of the Roman Emperor but also accorded him divine status. It was so abhorrent that the Pharisees devised a way using foreign money lenders to exchange Roman for Judean coins so the Jewish people could have as little contact with the offending coin as possible. In his reply, Jesus makes a distinction between the political and spiritual realms but also implies that we have duties in both of them. The first reading also makes a distinction between earthly and heavenly power. Human leaders may do good work that is willed by God, but no other power, no matter how good, that can fulfill what is God's alone to fulfill. Implied in the psalm's outpouring of praise is that it is only God who deserves this glory and honor. God's power is ultimate, above all others, and God deserves our whole hearts and our utmost in love and loyalty.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Altar Flowers Opportunity

The Altar Flowers are given today in memory of Knox Mellon by Carlotta Mellon.

Here at Carmel Mission we are very fortunate to be surrounded by natural beauty in our wonderful gardens, and we receive feedback from parishioners and visitors alike on how much they enjoy the flowers, plants and trees on our property. The beauty of nature is a concrete reminder of the beauty of God, in whose image we are made. When we enjoy beautiful flowers, plants and trees we are celebrating God's gift of the natural world.

We are so happy to continue the beauty of altar flowers at our Masses each week. We invite you to consider sponsoring a bouquet for $90 in memory or honor of a loved one, to celebrate a birthday or anniversary, or in thanksgiving to God.

The altar flowers will be a part of our weekend Masses and your dedication will included in our weekly e-bulletin.

Please contact Laura at liturgy@carmelmission.org for more information and to schedule your gift. Thank you so much for your generosity and for helping to ensure that these symbols of beauty and life are part of our weekly celebrations.

LEGACY SOCIETY

Click the thumbnail to the right to watch a short video about the Carmel Mission Legacy Society by Fr. Paul.

What is Legacy Society?

We owe an untold debt of gratitude to countless individuals — over many decades — whose benevolence made today's Mission a reality. Their generosity not only restored the Mission's structures to their former glory but also helped restore a house of faith, education, and outreach that is deeply rooted in our community.

This legacy of giving is the inspiration behind the Carmel Mission Legacy Society. Its purpose is to acknowledge past gifts and honor those who include Carmel Mission in their estate planning.

Legacy gifts provide a unique opportunity to ensure perpetual care for Carmel Mission. Your gift will help this historic and sacred church serve as a house of worship, an educational resource, and support for the most vulnerable in our community, for generations to come.

Ways You Can Give

Through planned giving, there are many ways to make a gift to Carmel Mission without impacting your own financial future. When you include Carmel Mission in your will or living trust or as a beneficiary of your retirement plan or life-insurance policy, you can plan, with confidence, that your generosity will support the Mission after your lifetime.

A legacy gift does not alter your current lifestyle in any way and allows you to leave a legacy without giving up your assets. It is important to note that the bequest is revocable, allowing you to change your mind at any time should your circumstances change.

FIRST LIBRARY OF CALIFORNIA

As an update to the ongoing Convento Library cataloging project, I'd like to focus today on some of the people who used these books in their daily lives and as part of their missionary activity. It was not uncommon in the eighteenth century, as it is today, for people to write their names in books that they owned. I still do the same, as I suspect many of you do, too. Franciscan brothers would often write their names in certain books, sometimes along with other information, in what we call inscriptions. It's been especially interesting while examining the Convento books to look at these inscriptions, since they tell us about who used a particular book and when, and they give us clues as to when the book arrived at our library and from where.

Of course I would be thrilled to report that we have books "signed" by, or inscribed by Saint Junipero. We don't. That's probably not a coincidence. Junipero Serra was above all a very humble man, and as a devout Franciscan he did not believe in personal ownership. Father Serra would have viewed the books in the library as common property, which is to say property of the Order of Friars Minor.

We do have one enticing piece of evidence, though, that Saint Serra used a particular book, and that is very special indeed. This book was printed in 1761 and bears the title: "El Peregrino con Guia," or "The Pilgrim with a Guide." It is otherwise a fairly nondescript book with a vellum, or leather, wrapped binding. On the back of the leather cover is an ink inscription that reads: "para el padre Junipero," or "for Father Junipero." This is so far the only book I've discovered with Father Serra's name on it. The reason for this particular inscription on the binding is hard to ascertain. The book might have been a gift, or someone simply wanted to indicate that Padre Junipero wanted to see this particular book, or maybe had even asked for it. In any case, we can certainly imagine Saint Junipero in his room, late at night, reading this particular book by candlelight.

We do have the names of some other missionaries in books, some well known, others not. Another name we might all recognize is that of Father Francisco Palou, Junipero Serra's biographer, one-time student, and good friend. In a large book on St. Bernardine of Siena, we read the Latin inscription on the title page: "Utilitur [for use by] Fray Franciscus Palou," using a Latinized version of his first name. Whether or not this is by his own hand is hard to determine and will require more close comparison with known examples of his writing, but nonetheless it shows his interest in this one book.

FIRST LIBRARY OF CALIFORNIA

A few of our bookworms are less known to us. A number of books contain handwritten inscriptions by Padre Dionisio Basterra. He is especially prominent in the first bookcase, that is, he liked the large books. The interesting fact about Father Basterra is that he never came up to Alta California. Instead, we find him in Baja, California, where Father Serra met him on his way up to founding Mission San Diego. We don't know much else about Basterra, except that he was a young man and completely on his own at Mission Santa Gertrudis. He eventually returned to the College of San Fernando in Mexico City. How the books with his name in them came to be here in Carmel is a mystery.

Finally, I'll introduce one last book lover, Pedro Benito Cambon. We know more about Father Cambon because he worked for many years in Alta California alongside Father Serra. Cambon departed for New Spain in 1769. His initial destination was the newly established mission of San Diego, but he went on to land at Monterey on 21 May, 1771. Once he arrived here on our own shores, Father Serra directed him and Fray Angel Somera to found Mission San Gabriel. This they did on 8 September, 1771. Soon enough, Cambon returned to San Diego, but bigger things were still in store for him. In 1776, Pedro Cambon and Francisco Palou reached the site of what was to become Mission Dolores in San Francisco. After three years there as Palou's assistant, Cambon returned to Mexico due to ill health, but he wasn't done yet. After recovering, he returned to San Gabriel, then went on to help found Mission San Buenaventura in 1782. His service in Alta California in fact continued until 1791. The next year he returned to his native Spain again in ill health, but his place and year of death are unknown.

This brief review of some of the readers and custodians of our Mission books will be followed in a few months time by another update, this time on the markings used by institutions and missions to claim ownership of their own books.

MISSION DOORS RESTORATION PROJECT

We have undertaken the much needed restoration of many of the beautiful wooden doors at Carmel Mission.

The doors of the Carmel Mission are based on designs seen throughout the California Mission Chain and designs replicated throughout the Southwest, Mexico, and Spain. We do have some information that is helpful..

For example the Mission's main entrance doors we are fairly certain are based on Sir Harry Downie's affinity of the doors at Mission Dolores.

MISSION DOORS RESTORATION PROJECT

The much heralded and appreciate “River of Life” door design has been given much attention as it is a prominent feature at many of our Historic Missions. From a traditional understandings that has grown over time the River of Life motif is a direct reference to Revelation 22:

1 And he showed me a river of water of life, bright as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb, 2 in the midst of the street thereof. And on this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve manner of fruits, yielding its fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

From and other perspective the three wavy lines have been linked to the trinity. The design of three is a common motif in Church architecture.

As you will see in the before and after photographs, the restoration has brought new life to many of the doors.

MISSION DOORS RESTORATION PROJECT

This project has also given us an opportunity to observe the diversity of architectural styles and incredible workmanship that went into creating the doors.

In a recent conversation pertaining to the unique design with noted Spanish Colonial architecture expert Gloria Giffords shared that all of these perspectives are “dandy ideas”. She shared we really don’t know where these interpretations come from because we don’t have any documentation from when this design was first introduced. In a world that offers so many answers and information it is good that our Mission Church still has a few more mysteries to share. It is even better that we continue to preserve and protect these unique architectural features for future generations to ponder and explore.

St. Jude Thaddeus—Patron Saint of Lost Causes

Feast Day: October 28 - Patron of Desperate Cases

Saint Jude, known as Thaddeus, was the nephew of Mary and Joseph, and a cousin of our Lord. He was the brother of the apostle James the Less. As a young man, Saint Jude knew Jesus well, and left everything to follow Him. At Pentecost, Saint Jude, along with Mother Mary and the other disciples of Jesus, was filled with the Holy Spirit. Tongues like fire rested on their heads, as the Holy Spirit gave the disciples the grace and the fervent desire to reach out to the lost of the world with the message of God's love. That is why Saint Jude is often pictured with a tongue of fire on his head. Saint Jude is pictured wearing an image of Jesus because through the power of Jesus' name he healed a king suffering from leprosy. Saint Jude also wrote a Letter, or Epistle, that we find in the New Testament. He encourages us to keep strong in our faith even when it is not easy. The two apostles, Saints Simon and Jude, labored as missionaries in the country of Armenia, where they suffered martyrdom. Saint Jude's relics today are honored in Saint Peter's basilica in Rome.
