FR. PAUL'S MESSAGE

Dear Friend of Carmel Mission,

In our Gospel today, John the Baptist is emphatic about who he is, and more importantly, who he is not. He is not Elijah, or the Prophet, and certainly not the Christ. He is a bullhorn to repeat and amplify the words of the prophets in an attempt to prepare the world for the coming of Christ. He is not the light of the world, but he knows this light, he felt it when he was in his mother's womb. He is uniquely able to testify to its reality, its proximity and its warmth. By this witness he hoped to point people toward the light he knows is the Christ, the Messiah, the changer of worlds.

In every corner of the world where there is suffering, despair, and grief, the light of Christ is shining. In war zones, in disaster areas, in prisons and hospitals, Christ's light is there. But all too often it is obscured by human pain and fear, and even more sadly, sometimes by human malice. Here is where we can emulate the work of the John the Baptist. We know that the light is there. We must find and remove whatever may be veiling it so all may experience the encouragement, the healing, and the hope it offers.

Like all of God's saving work, this can, and indeed must, be done on both the macro and the micro level. We must find ways to uncover and shine Christ's light on places of what feels like hopeless conflict - in our world today these include Ukraine and the Middle East. Peace requires hope and courage - hope to believe that peace is possible, and courage to resist the many human forces that pull us away from it. But we need not only look to war zones on other continents to find places where Christ's light is sorely needed. In each of us are wounds in need of the healing touch of this light. Peace in our hearts requires the same hope and courage as peace in our world, and the two are wholly intertwined. The Baptist was brimming with hope, and displayed enormous courage in his life of faith. His example exhorts us to be light-bearers to our world, our community, and ourselves.

I wish you and your loved ones Advent blessings of good health and new hope. Please continue to pray, and to work, for peace,

Fr. Paul

FINANCE COUNCIL REPORT

As defined by Canon Law, the Finance Council is an advisory body that serves to assist and advise Fr. Paul in such matters as the creation and approval of the annual budget, fundraising, financial reporting, insurance and personnel issues, management of Mission assets, and many other subjects pertaining to the administration of Carmel Mission's affairs.

This year, our Finance Council has undergone some restructuring with the creation of the Norms for the Carmel Mission Finance Council. This document frames the Council's role, structure, functions, expectations, and member duties. In addition, it outlines the timely distribution of reports to Council members as well as the storing and confidentiality of this material.

In addition, a Ministries Handbook has been created to provide our ministry leaders with a set of procedures standardizing the various aspects of ministry accounting. Also, of great importance and at Fr. Paul's direction, a Strategic Plan has been formalized to serve as a roadmap for all the numerous ongoing and future Mission projects in need of attention.

As you will see from the Financial Overview elsewhere in this Annual Report, Carmel Mission, thanks to your generosity, is on a very sound financial footing. We are blessed to have had a very successful year. Still, we remain keenly aware of the need for your continued financial support to complete the never-ending projects of restoration, improvement, and maintenance of our beloved Carmel Mission.

I join Fr. Paul in thanking the members of our Finance Council for their dedicated service and support this past year: Mel Fortes, Frank Fritsch, Patti Gilbert, Dick Gorman, Paul Hoffman, Katie Hogan, and Adam Tight.

Tim Lewis

Finance Council Chair

FINANCIAL OVERVIEW

We are happy to report a healthy fiscal year that ended with a significant surplus over our budget due in large part to a number of generous contributions.

Savings & Debt

Our current debt totals $992,010, which is a 7.3% reduction from last year. Without question, the greatest impact on our debt reduction has been due to the overwhelming generosity of our parishioners.

Income

On the revenue side, our plate collections equaled 95% of the prior year. This past year saw many income categories and activities returning to pre pandemic levels.

Expenses

Fr. Paul kept expenses below all budgeted amounts. Salaries and payroll expenses were about 20% under budget. The only expense budget item materially over budget was Operation Expenses. That overage was caused by several unexpected major repairs and storm damage expenses.

Restoration Work

Several key restoration projects were initiated. The restoration of the Storefront was started along with the completion of the Basilica Forecourt walls and doors.

Storm Damages

There were three major storms from December 2022 through March 2023, which brought heavy winds and rains that exposed weaknesses in our physical plant from roofing, trees, drainage and our electrical and back up generator systems. Much work and expense has gone into repairs and needed restoration of critical areas. This work will continue through the 2023-24 fiscal year.

Impactful Conditions

There were nearly 20% fewer visitors to Carmel Mission this past year consistent with similar decreases experienced by local area tourism.

AMA CAMPAIGNS

The generous support of our parishioners of our Annual Ministry Appeal (AMA) been a needed blessing to our entire community. The only annual fundraiser for our Carmel Mission is this campaign. Funds, over and above our contribution to the Diocesan Ministries, pay for necessary repair, maintenance and improvement projects here at the Mission. Much needed restoration work has begun on projects to address and enhance accessibility. The Blessed Sacrament Chapel has been thoroughly cleaned and we are upgrading the heating, plumbing and ventilation in addition to addressing access and security. We again are so very grateful for your generosity during our campaigns. The funds are and will be used for important projects to benefit us now and will guarantee that the Mission campus will continue to be fully accessible for many years to come.

CARMEL MISSION LEGACY SOCIETY

The legacy of giving is the inspiration behind the Carmel Mission Legacy Society. Its purpose is to acknowledge past bequests and honor those who include Carmel Mission in their estate planning.

After much preparation, the Mission's Legacy Society was launched this past March by distributing a brochure, FAQ document, and a pulpit announcement. The latter addressed the concept of the 1% option, which introduced the idea of carving out a gift of 1% of one's estate for the Mission, thus leaving 99% for other beneficiaries. (It was likewise mentioned that a gift of more than 1% to the Mission was an equally great option!) Also highlighted was that IRA and 401K retirement programs serve as an excellent source of bequests since these funds are generally fully taxable to individual beneficiaries but not to the Mission, which has non-profit tax status.

With continued parishioner support, this unique planned giving program will no doubt play a significant role in the future funding of the restoration, improvement, and maintenance needs of our beloved Carmel Mission.

As of this writing, the Carmel Mission Legacy Society is off to a good start with 23 new members.

ELECTRONIC GIVING

More and more of our parishioners are learning and taking advantage of the benefits of electronic gifting. Sign up for scheduled contributions with just a few clicks on our parish website. The amounts can be changed or stopped at any time. You will also have an annual record of your contributions including donations to our second collections for our ministries and other special appeals.

If you have not checked out the options on our website, do so today. If you have any questions or concerns regarding this resource, please click "DONATE" on our website.

STORE MINISTRY

Our store is one of our most important ministries, which contributes directly to the ongoing needs of our parish. This last year the store revenue offset a little over $60,000 of campus operating expenses. Our dedicated Mission Store staff work hard to select and stock items of great interest to our parishioners and visitors. Many visitors keep our Carmel Mission close to their hearts as they return home with a memory of Carmel Mission from our store.

For those of you who want to learn more about our Carmel Mission and Saint Junipero there is a wonderful selection of books and other resources.

Please also visit our store for special gifts for your family and friends. A gift purchased from there for your children or grandchildren may have a lasting impact on them as they see how important the Mission has been to you.

SACRAMENTS

Our Sacraments are returning back to pre-pandemic levels. Over the last year, our parish conducted 45 beautiful weddings. We also administered 23 funerals and 31 baptisms.

FAITH FORMATION

Although we got off to a late start this fall, it has been a blessed one! Carmel Mission's Faith Formation program has a total of 56 students being led by Jessica Ortega and our wonderful Catechists. We are happy to have 25 elementary students who will be receiving the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy First Communion, and 14 high school students who will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation in the Spring of 2024!

MINISTRIES

We are fortunate to have many vibrant ministries at Carmel Mission. Our ministries support the spiritual and sacramental life of our parish family. They help us welcome and educate the many pilgrims and visitors who visit the Mission each year. They allow us reach beyond our walls to share the good news of God's love, as well as offering much needed practical assistance and support, to those in need. We are grateful to the many volunteers who contribute their time, talent, and treasure to support our ministries and allow them to thrive and grow.

FLOWER MINISTRY

We are most appreciative of the parishioners who have helped expand the availability and use of the beautiful flowers adorning our altars. These arrangements are a beautiful honor to those we celebrate at our masses. They greatly enhance the sacred environment for our community. Thank you for your continuing support.

Scripture Reflection

On this Sunday called Gaudete from the Latin for “re-joice,” rejoicing is a thread that weaves through all the readings, from the joy of the exiles returning to Jerusalem, to the rejoicing of Mary in the Magnificat (the responsorial psalm: to Paul’s insistence that the Thessalonians rejoice at every moment. This joy is not a vague sentiment or an abstract concept. It wells up in response to very concrete sights of God’s providential care. Isaiah’s list of what makes for glad tidings is very familiar: healing of broken hearts, liberty for all who are captive and release for those imprisoned. It is the same mission that Jesus claims for his own in Luke 4:18-19. These freeing acts are prescribed for the jubilee year in Leviticus 25. Every fifty years debts are to be erased, land returned to its original owners and those held bound are to be released. In her Magnificat, Mary’s rejoicing is caused not only by God’s mysterious workings in her own life, but by all the ways God’s mercy has been manifest in every generation. Mary sings of a leveling; all who have been hungry are filled to satisfaction, and those who are gorged themselves to excess are emptied out. To accomplish this, those who have hoarded too much must relinquish some to the rightful owners – that is those who have been made poor by others’ greed and have the right to eat and be satisfied too. To cultivate open and generous hearts that embolden us to give these kinds of gifts, St. Paul advises the Thessalonians to do three things constantly – rejoice, pray, and give thanks, no matter the circumstances we find ourselves in. In the Gospel, we hear John the Baptist using Isaiah’s words to present himself as the “voice of one crying out in the desert. John is simply the one pointing towards the Expected One. He himself is not the light; he came to testify to the light and bring others to believe through his testimony. While he was not the Light, John was a light that showed the way to the light of the world.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Advent and Christmas Flowers

Flowers are an important part of our Advent and Christmas celebrations.

This year we are hoping, with your support, to have beautiful arrangements of roses to celebrate both Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception and Our Lady of Guadalupe, and, of course, the iconic Christmas poinsettias. If you would like to support Immaculate Conception, Our Lady of Guadalupe, or the Christmas Poinsettias with a minimum donation of $90 please contact Laura at liturgy@carmelmission.org to arrange your donation and your intention. Your intentions will be included in the bulletin for the weeks before and after the feast days.

Thank you for your generosity.

I-HELP Ministry Carmel Mission Basilica

Carmel Mission's I-HELP ministry needs YOUR help!

Once a month, for several years the Carmel Mission has hosted both the men's and the women's programs through the Interfaith Homeless Emergency Lodging Program (I-HELP). Carmel Mission provided overnight shelter for the I-HELP men's program on the 4th Wednesday of every month. Volunteers provided dinner, breakfast, & a brown-bag lunch for the program participants. And, on the 2nd Monday of every month the Mission provides overnight shelter for I-HELP's women participants. Volunteers provide dinner and a breakfast snack the next morning.

Currently, this ministry has only been able to host I-HELP's women's program participants. Carmel Mission NEEDS coordinators and volunteers particularly for the I-HELP Men's program. What can you do? You can contribute to the meals we serve, or you can provide a part of the meal and drop it off at Crespi Hall and you can share dinner and fellowship with the program participants. Please consider this ecumenical opportunity.

For more information contact Flo Miller, women's program coordinator, at visayanfm@yahoo.com, 831-624-4056 (h) or 831-392-7900 (c).
Or contact Fr.Paul@carmelmission.org.
