Dear Friend of Carmel Mission,

As ever, the scribes and the Pharisees in today's Gospel are finding fault with Jesus. Today it is about who is attracted to His teaching, specifically tax collectors (those who were supporting the enemy Roman state) and sinners (those who had violated any variety of laws meant to preserve righteousness). Not only do they draw close to Jesus, but He welcomes them, encourages them, and even eats with them.

So, Jesus addresses the parable of the Prodigal Son to the scribes and Pharisees. On the one hand, it shows the great mercy and generosity of God, who rejoices when anyone returns to Him. Sinners and tax collectors are not just to be tolerated, but celebrated, embraced and lifted up if their goal is to be closer to God and to learn and do God's will. But the parable is also about the older devoutly obedient son. When he sees the rejoicing over the return of his disgraced brother his heart fills with so much righteous anger than he cannot even enter his father's house. And just like that, he is suddenly just as "lost" as his younger brother. He is not driven away from all the father offers by folly and dissipation, but by pride and greed. In complaining about the tax collectors and sinners, and refusing to be near them, the scribes and Pharisees are only succeeding in distancing themselves from God.

We cannot apply our human understanding and ability to love to God. God does not love us any less for His great love for those who have repented. God simply loves fully and greatly for all to receive. If we do not receive God's love in its fullness, it is because we have failed to understand that a place in our Father's house is not a competitive game. This can be so difficult as we are hard-wired for competition for survival. Today's parable helps us to remember if we have strayed from God, He is waiting to welcome us back with open arms and open heart. And, if we have been faithfully walking our journey of faith with God, everything God has is ours already.

I wish you and your loved ones Lenten blessings of good health and great hope. Please continue to pray for peace,

Fr. Paul

Message from Bishop Garcia on the Holy Year of Jubilee 2025

February 24, 2025

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ:

It is indeed a great joy that His Holiness, Pope Francis, has declared a Jubilee Year of Hope that began December 29, 2024, and ends on Sunday, December 28, 2025.

It is meant to be a journey of prayer and renewal for God's Holy People. The Pope's focus on the virtue of "hope," for Jubilee Year 2025, is one our world desperately needs.

As Pope Francis has often spoken about – he also focuses living this Jubilee Year such that it might be a 'moment' of encounter, in particular, a genuine, personal encounter with the Lord Jesus, he who is our Way, Truth, and Life. My hope for our Diocesan Family, is that this deeper encounter with the Lord Jesus, who is indeed "our hope," would also spur our greater commitment to say "Yes!" to the Lord's invitation to us to share in his mission.

On Sunday, March 2, 2025 at 10:30AM, I will preside at the Solemn Liturgical Opening of the Holy Year in our Diocese at our Cathedral Church of San Carlos in Monterey, to which all are invited.

During Holy Years, it has often been the pious practice of the Christian faithful to make pilgrimages as a sign of their 'spiritual journey,' to both local and universal holy sites. Below are listed the churches in our Diocese which have been officially designated as pilgrimage sites.

- San Carlos Cathedral, Monterey, CA
- ❖ Carmel Mission Basilica, Carmel, CA
- ❖ Mission Chapel of Holy Cross, Santa Cruz, CA
- ❖ Mission Church of San Juan Bautista, San Juan Bautista, CA
- ❖ Madonna de Sasso Pro Cathedral, Salinas, CA
- Mission San Luis Obispo de Tolosa Pro Cathedral, San Luis Obispo, CA

An indulgence is one of the special 'signs' of the Jubilee Year, which reminds us of the "unlimited nature of God's mercy." (Spes Non Confundit, 23, Pope Francis). Information will be posted on our diocesan social media in the coming days.

Again, my prayer for all of you, is that this Jubilee will bring forth a deeper encounter with the Lord Jesus who is the world's true hope, "yesterday, today, and forever." May we pray together for the courage to proclaim this hope to the world. May this hope be 'realized' in our love for and service to, the poorest and most marginalized in our midst.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Daniel E. Garcia Bishop of Monterey in California

Scripture Reflection

The parable Jesus tells today begins on a shocking note - the younger brother demands his share the inheritance before his father is even dead! The elder brother's objections come later, when his brother returns home and former fears his portion will be jeopardized. Both sons display a sense of entitlement. They have calculated what is coming to them, and they are making sure they collect all of it. There is a considerable amount of inheritance involved; this is not a poor family. They have cattle and the means to put on a feast. The father has a fine robe, sandals, and a ring to put on his son. When the father hands over his wealth to his two sons you would think they would be happy, but instead they are both miserable. The younger one squanders everything, while the older one hoards it, not spending even a little bit to entertain his friends. The younger son, now destitute, would be happy with the slop his father's pigs eat. The older one berates his father, accusing him of a lack of generosity. Amazingly, this baseless accusation does not trigger an angry response, but a renewed invitation to joy "everything I have is yours!" Something has died in the sons. Their greed and jealousy have blinded them to the overflowing abundance that is theirs. The younger son comes back to life when he hits rock bottom. His father's unfailing love, as he seeks him out and wraps him in the mantle of unconditional forgiveness, resurrects in the son the response of love, joy and gratitude, along with the sure knowledge that it is being given freely and totally. In the first reading, the Israelites finally enter the Promised Land after forty years of wandering in the desert. God's promises are fulfilled even after the idol worship that began their desert journey. The psalm is a response to the first reading. In receiving the fruits of the Promised Land, and moving past the manna that sustained them in the desert, they are literally tasting the goodness of the Lord. This psalm also points us to the Eucharist, where we literally taste God's goodness. It is there that God offers us abundant life and sustains us on our spiritual journey.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Our Mora Chapel is named for renowned artist and sculptor Jo Mora, who spent much time at our beloved Carmel Mission, and was captured and inspired by its beauty and historical significance.

This year we dedicate the funds we raise to preservation and restoration efforts in the Mora Chapel.

Work is needed to mitigate less than ideal ventilation, clean and conserve the historic items and better display them for the enjoyment and edification of our parish family and the many visitors and pilgrims we welcome each year.

Mora Chapel's Living History

Father Serra Celebrates Mass at Monterey (1877)

Leon Trousset's Founding Painting (1877), housed in the Carmel Mission's Chapel, is a pivotal work of historical and cultural significance. Depicting Junípero Serra's first Mass under Monterey's iconic oak tree in 1770-the same site described by explorer Sebastián Vizcaíno in 1602the painting bridges California's colonial past with its 19th-century artistic legacy. Trousset, a French-born artist drawn to Monterey's bohemian circles, rendered the scene with meticulous detail: Serra elevates the Eucharist beneath a makeshift canopy, flanked by Spanish soldiers, friars, and Indigenous onlookers, while the oak itself dominates the composition as a symbol of enduring faith.

Trousset's work is not merely artistic but historiographic. Painted over a century after the event, it reflects both the Romanticism of its time and the colonial and the narratives shaping California's identity. The inclusion of Mission bells, European flags, and Native Peoples as observers reveals the complex interplay of evangelization, and the dynamics of cultural exchange. Trousset's ties to Jules Simoneau's Monterey salon—a hub visited by Robert Louis Stevenson—add layers to its provenance, anchoring it within California's significant artistic history.

Preserving and protecting this oil-on-canvas masterpiece is critical. Measuring 53" x 72", its scale and age make it vulnerable to environmental damage, pigment fading, and canvas deterioration. As one of few surviving works by Trousset—whose commissions included churches across California—it offers irreplaceable insight into 19th-century interpretations of the state's founding myths.

"Leon Trousset's 1877 masterpiece,
'Father Serra Celebrates Mass at Monterey,' immortalizes the founding of Carmel Mission in 1770.
This monumental oil painting captures the spiritual dawn of California's colonial era.

Protecting such artifacts ensures future generations confront both the spiritual fervor and colonial complexities embedded in their brushstrokes. The Founding Painting is more than a devotional image; it is a portal to understanding how history is remembered, contested, and visualized. For the Carmel Mission Basilica Museum, safeguarding Trousset's vision honors not only Saint Junipero's legacy but also the fragile interplay of art, memory, and truth that defines our shared heritage.

2024 AMA PROJECT PLANNING UPDATE

FEBRUARY 2025 - UPDATE

We are happy to report on the good progress being made on the 2024 AMA campaign - The Blessed Sacrament Chapel: A Place of Prayer and Peace.

Our preliminary work has brought us to the budgeting and logistics phase of the BSC project.

Plans Received - Estimates Forthcoming

We have received a set of plans detailing building accessibility improvements and are working with a local contractor to get preliminary estimates on the proposed work.

Building Structure Restoration and Seismic Retrofit

Our BSC project necessitated us looking at the overall structure of the Blessed Sacrament Chapel building. It is most prudent at this time to explore the options to restore the entire building, which would include a seismic retrofit. This is a significant endeavor and we look forward to sharing the findings with you once the evaluation is complete.

Our AMA total to date is $352,502.00 (including our $70,000.00 donation to the Diocesan ministries).

DECEMBER 2024 - UPDATE

2024 AMA Campaign - The Blessed Sacrament Chapel: A Place of Prayer and Peace.

We recently received a generous contribution of $20,000.00. Our AMA total to date is $321,102.00 (including our $70,000.00 donation to the Diocesan ministries). Though we promote our annual campaign fundraising in the early to late spring, we continue to receive donations until the end of the year. Our goal is to improve the ventilation, heating, and security of our beautiful Blessed Sacrament Chapel to make it more accessible, comfortable, and secure.

We have done much preliminary work to identify the necessary improvements to the Chapel. As the structure of the building itself needs restoration and seismic retrofit, we are in the process of understanding the parameters of such a project to ensure the work we do now is in line with that larger effort. We have already done much to improve the Chapel and Sacristy environments by addressing humidity, plumbing, lighting, storage, and plaster issues. We have engaged a landscape architect, contractor, and surveyor to develop options for improving building accessibility by providing better access for those with limited mobility.

We are still in the research phase of the project.

We must evaluate the structural recommendations and proposed improvements to clarify the project's scope, budget, and timeline.

We look forward to further work commencing in 2025.

FIRST LIBRARY IN CALIFORNIA

Today I'd like to tell you a little about our library and the people who led the efforts to restore it in the 1930s, 40s and 50s, first and foremost of course being Harry Downie. As we know, the Mission was secularized and then abandoned by the early 1840s. This was a process that took some years. In preparation for the handover of the Mission, Father José Maria del Real inventoried the entire property, including all the books in the library, in 1834. His inventory listed a total of 404 books. He returned in 1842 to conduct another inventory, by which time the library had already lost about 90 volumes. As happened with most of the artwork and other valuable property, thankfully the books were relocated to the parish church in Monterey, the present San Carlos Cathedral, also known as the Royal Presidio Chapel. Here they found a safe place they could call home for the next hundred years.

Monsignor James H. Culleton

We lose track of the former Mission library until the 1930s. Only recently uncovered in the Archives of the Diocese of Monterey, I found an inventory of the library made by Monsignor James H. Culleton in 1932. Father Culleton (1898-1978), a native of Fresno, was what we used to call a book man, which is to say that he was very knowledgeable about old and rare books. Along with the inventory, Father Culleton was responsible for the return of a large number of books he had found in Santa Cruz in 1931. Many of these books are inscribed by him documenting this return. One such inscription reads: "found among the books of the Old Santa Cruz Mission in the attic of the Santa Cruz parish house. It bears the catalog marking of the old San Carlos Mission of Monterey." Father Culleton went on to serve in Fresno in many roles, including as Chancellor of the Diocese of Monterey-Fresno. The archives in Fresno bear his name.

At around this same time, Harry Downie was beginning his work on the restoration of Carmel Mission. He naturally began work bringing the church back to its old glory, work that allowed a parish to be established here again on October 27, 1933. A new roof was put on in 1936, and the following ten years saw a great deal of restoration work across the grounds, including the Convento Wing, now our museum and gift shop. It wasn't until 1949 that the rebuilt library room in the Convento was completed, and it was at that time that Harry received permission to relocate the books from Monterey to Carmel. For this purpose he built four large book cases, numbered 1-4 with Roman numerals, that hold the books to this day. He was especially keen on reshelving the books in much the same order that they had at the time around 1800, when Father Lasuen had all the books identified with their special shelf mark, denoting the case and order that each Harry J. Downie book was given.

Harry Downie then wanted to give the library a proper catalog of all the books present, and in 1956 he engaged Sylvia Broadbent to document the volumes properly. She was at the time a graduate student at the University of California, Berkeley, studying anthropology. Sylvia was originally from England and emigrated with her family to California in 1947. She graduated the following year from Carmel High School (at age 16), and went on to study as an undergraduate at Berkeley. She certainly must have known Harry around this time, and so he naturally turned to her for his cataloging effort. The 3x5 card catalog that she completed now resides at the Bancroft Library at Berkeley. Dr. Broadbent went on to a prolific career as a professor at UC Riverside.

Sylvia M. Broadbent

Harry Downie's efforts to bring the library back to life continued. He scoured the other missions for books that had once belonged in Carmel. Books came back from all over California, including Watsonville, Mission Santa Barbara, Mission San Luis Rey, San Francisco, and even Phoenix, Arizona. Harry also bought books on the rare books market that carried the titles once held by the Convento library. We can be forever grateful for Harry Downie's efforts at restoring our great mission, to include one of its treasures, Saint Junípero's very own library.

Carmel Mission's I-HELP ministry needs YOUR help!

Once a month, for several years the Carmel Mission has hosted both the men's and the women's programs through the Interfaith Homeless Emergency Lodging Program (I-HELP). Carmel Mission provided overnight shelter for the I-HELP men's program on the 4th Wednesday of every month. Volunteers provided dinner, breakfast, & a brown-bag lunch for the program participants. And, on the 2nd Monday of every month the Mission provides overnight shelter for I-HELP's women participants. Volunteers provide dinner and a breakfast snack the next morning.

Currently, this ministry has only been able to host I-HELP's women's program participants. Carmel Mission NEEDS coordinators and volunteers particularly for the I-HELP Men's program. What can you do? You can contribute to the meals we serve, or you can provide a part of the meal and drop it off at Crespi Hall and you can share dinner and fellowship with the program participants. Please consider this ecumenical opportunity.
