Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord,
Sunday, March 29, 2026

Dear Friend of Carmel Mission,

Today's celebration begins the holiest week of the year - a week in which we will travel with Jesus from His ephemerally triumphant procession into Jerusalem, to the Last Supper with His disciples and friends, to the garden in Gethsemane where He faces the very real and human fear of the suffering to come, to His sham trials, humiliation, torture, and finally to His execution on the cross at Calvary. From there, we go with Him into the tomb, and then are witness to the joyous moment of His Resurrection. In today's liturgy we experience much of this arc, getting as far as the tomb – a place from where we can explore each step along this journey more deeply in the days to come.

In today's passion narrative from Matthew's Gospel, as Jesus hangs on the cross, He makes a line from today's responsorial psalm, Psalm 22, His personal prayer, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" This psalm is the prayer of a person enduring great suffering - mockery, torture, and death at the hands of others, but who expresses through it all an enduring trust in God's presence, help, and ultimate vindication. A faithful Jew with a deep knowledge and love of the Sacred Scriptures, Jesus would have held in His heart the hopeful ending of the psalm as He cried out its first painful line. In this psalm, we are given the space to proclaim our own anguish and distress, knowing that God Himself has been in that same space with us. In Gethsemane, the night before, Jesus asked His Father to lift the burden of His suffering, but He received no response. On the cross, He prays a psalm which enumerates His pain and His fear, yet in face of all this suffering He remains confident in God's presence, even if, in the moment, that presence is silent.

God's answer will come on Easter morning, when all the pain, fear, and suffering is realized in glorious Resurrection. While this triumph eclipses what comes before, it does not erase it. As we are journey through this sacred week, we are reminded that in our own suffering God is present, understanding from experience our pain and our fear. We can be certain, as Jesus was, that God is there, and God will answer in God's time, and in ways beyond our imaging.

I wish you and your loved ones a very blessed Holy Week, please use this sacred time to pray for peace in our world,

Fr. Paul

Diocesan Decree for the Year of St. Francis of Assisi

Pope Leo XIV has proclaimed a special Jubilee Year from January 10, 2026, to January 10, 2027, to commemorate the eight hundredth anniversary of the death of Saint Francis of Assisi.

The Apostolic Penitentiary issued a decree granting the Plenary Indulgence under the usual conditions which can also be applied in the form of suffrage for the souls in Purgatory.

Besides offering the indulgence to all the Franciscan Families and anyone who observes the Rule of St. Francis, all the faithful without distinction can receive the indulgence “by visiting in the form of a pilgrimage any Franciscan conventual church, or place of worship anywhere in the world dedicated to St. Francis or connected to him for any reason, and there they will devoutly follow the Jubilee rites or spend at least a suitable period of time in pious meditation and will raise prayers to God so that, following the example of St. Francis, may sentiments of Christian charity towards one's neighbor and authentic wishes for harmony and peace among peoples spring up in hearts, concluding with the Our Father, the Creed and invocations to the Blessed Virgin Mary, St Francis of Assisi, St Clare and all the saints of the Franciscan Family” (Eighth Centenary of the death of St. Francis of Assisi, Apostolic Penitentiary Decree).

Therefore, I, the Most Rev. Ramon Bejarano, Bishop of the Diocese of Monterey, decree that the following churches/chapels are the pilgrimage destinations in this diocese for this special Jubilee.

1. Old Mission San Juan Bautista and St. Francis Retreat Center, San Juan Bautista, in the north of the Diocese.
2. St. Paul the Apostle, Pismo Beach, CA in the south of the Diocese.

The elderly, the sick and those who for serious reasons cannot leave home will also be able to obtain the plenary indulgence by spiritually joining the Jubilee celebrations and offering their prayers, pains, or sufferings to God.

Conditions for receiving the Indulgence (for oneself or for the deceased)

- Sacramental confession to be in God's grace (within twenty days before or after).
- Participation in Mass and Eucharistic Communion.
- Visit in the form of a pilgrimage any Franciscan conventual church or place of worship dedicated to St. Francis anywhere in the world or designated by the local bishop.
- Renews one's profession of faith, through the recitation of the Creed.
- Recite the Lord's Prayer.
- Pray for the intentions of the Holy Father.

Given at the Diocese of Monterey on February 27, 2026

Scripture Reflection

In the Gospel of Matthew, which we read as this year's Palm Sunday passion narrative, is the only Gospel in which Jesus, with His words over the cup at the Last Supper, interprets His death in terms of forgiveness of sins (26:28). There is a particular emphasis in Matthew's Gospel on the shedding of blood and its consequences, which reaches a climax in the passion narrative. Previously, Jesus exposed the refusal of the religious leaders to recognize their complicity in the shedding of the blood of the prophets (23:30) just as Pilate tries to do when he washes his hands, declaring himself innocent of Jesus' blood (27:24). In contrast the crowd responds with recognition that the effects of Jesus' execution will continue to rebound not only on them, but also on their children (27:25). This verse is most often read as an acceptance of responsibility or guilt for the death of Jesus. However, there is no verb in the sentence making it possible to read it as a statement: His death is upon us and our children. It is a recognition that the effects of violence committed by leaders reverberate upon the people as a whole and continue to affect future generations. At the same time, with Jesus' words over the cup, Matthew asserts that the forgiving effects of the shedding of Jesus' blood also rebound on them. Jesus' invitation to drink from the cup of His "blood of the covenant, which will be shed on behalf of many for the forgiveness of sins" (26:28) brings together two powerful symbols: blood and cup. Blood signifies the life force over which only God has power (Deut 12:23). The cup signifies suffering, as in Jesus' plea in Gethsemane, "let this cup pass from me," (26:39). By accepting Jesus' invitation to drink from the cup, disciples accept suffering that befalls them as a consequence of living the Gospel. At the same time, partaking of the blood signifies acceptance of the life force of God, which empowers disciples to endure and overcome suffering and evil. In the Gospel of Matthew this power is explicitly linked with forgiveness. Jesus has lived and taught forgiveness as a means of breaking cycles of violence. He has accepted the "cup" of opposition that such a life has engendered, which will culminate in His death. Today's other readings center on the suffering of God's beloved, foretold in Isaiah, given voice in the psalms, and theologized in St. Paul's letter to the Philippians. God the Son, coequal with the Father, chose out of love to descend to our humanity to live, suffer, and even die, as one of us.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

RESTORATION: AT THE HEART OF OUR IDENTITY

Please Watch this Video Message from Fr. Paul:
An Update on Our AMA Projects & the Story They Tell

From the earliest days of Carmel Mission's history, restoration has never been simply a practical necessity — it has been an act of faith. Since its foundation, generations of parishioners, benefactors, clergy, and staff have poured their hearts into caring for and preserving this sacred place. Today, we are proud to share that we are living through one of the most significant periods of restoration in Carmel Mission's modern history.

Thanks to your generous support of our Annual Ministry Appeal (AMA), more conservation, preservation, and restoration work has been completed than in any other period of the Mission's history. The last 12–15 years mark the beginning of what we believe will be remembered as Carmel Mission's Modern Restoration Era, a time during which we all witnessed the canonization of St. Junipero.

Every dollar you have given to our AMA designated projects has gone — and will continue to go — directly toward this work.

A LIVING LEGACY OF STEWARDSHIP

Did you know that virtually every building at Carmel Mission, outside of the Basilica itself, has changed its purpose over the centuries? Crespi Hall once stood in the middle of our central courtyard. Each of these historic spaces has a story — one of adaptation, resilience, and the faithful care of those who came before us.

Under the leadership of Fr. Paul, our Mission has entered a new chapter of this story. His stewardship, combined with your support, has made it possible not only to restore what exists but also to develop a comprehensive vision for the future — one grounded in structural integrity, faithful preservation, and thoughtful planning.

EXPLORE OUR RESTORATION STORY ONLINE

We have created a dedicated Restoration website — the living home for Carmel Mission's preservation history. There you'll find architectural timelines, notable benefactors, the stories of our pastors and parishioners, and updates as our work continues to grow. This is your history, too.

AMA PROJECT UPDATES

Our AMA projects are not isolated efforts — they are interconnected chapters of a single, long-term restoration plan. Work on each project also enables us to evaluate building conditions, complete structural reports, and plan future campaigns with accuracy and confidence. Here is where each project stands today:

2024 PROJECT — BLESSED SACRAMENT CHAPEL (BSC) — In Progress

Phase 1 - The ramp, handrails, and door hardware work has been completed.

Additional work on the inside of the BSC revealed termite damage, significant plaster damage, exposed electrical wiring, damaged woodwork, and much needed painting. This work is being performed now, and we will reopen the BSC when complete.

Phase 2 - We plan to expand the pedestrian plaza from the visitor entrance to the BSC north entrance patio to provide an accessible entrance without stairs.

A seismic retrofit analysis and building condition evaluation have been completed, which informs future planning for a full building restoration.

2025 PROJECT — MORA CHAPEL PRESERVATION — Active Planning

The Mora Chapel project is one of our most ambitious undertakings — a coordinated effort to protect, catalog, and temporarily relocate sacred artifacts while the chapel undergoes restoration. Key elements include:

- Complete inventory and condition reporting of all artifacts in the Mora Chapel
- Careful removal and secure temporary storage of liturgical items
- Creation of a dedicated artifact conservation and storage workspace
- Structural and seismic evaluation of the chapel building
- Community updates and media documentation throughout the process

This project will also establish long-term infrastructure for artifact stewardship at Carmel Mission — a resource that will serve us for generations.

2026 PROJECT — A SAFE PATH OF TRAVEL — Project Launch March 21 & 22

This year's AMA campaign focuses on accessibility and safety across our campus, including:

- Crespi Hall accessible ramp
- Window and carpentry repairs
- Seismic structural evaluation of Crespi Hall
- Campus-wide parking lot improvements
- Unified path of travel connecting all buildings
- Exploration of a more accessible route to the Murphy parking lot

Because of the planning work completed during prior AMA campaigns, we enter 2026 with a clear scope, known costs, and a well-developed vision — something that would not have been possible without the groundwork laid together.
